

OSU gains NIT berth

CORVALLIS (AP) — Oregon State's basketball team received a bid Sunday to the National Invitation Tournament, and coach Ralph Miller says the Beavers have only themselves to blame for not getting an NCAA invitation.

The Beavers, 18-10, will face Idaho, 20-8, on Wednesday in Corvallis.

"I think it's always nice to be considered for anything," Miller said of the NIT invitation.

"Our players had voted to accept an NIT bid if they were not included in the NCAA," he said. "Certainly this was a year of upsets so far as seedings (for the NCAA). None of the tournaments worked out very well."

The Beavers lost to Stanford 88-75 on Saturday in their last regular-season game of Pac-10 Conference play. They finished third in the league with a 12-6 record.

The NIT competition through the quarterfinals will be held at various sites throughout the country, with the four semifinalists meeting at Madison Square Garden in New York on March 28. The finals will be held there March 30.

The Pac-10's other entry in the NIT, Arizona State, will face Fullerton State, 21-6, at Tempe, Ariz., on Friday. The Sun Devils are 17-12 this year.
