Parent's Weekend Schedule

Parents get the chance to attend classes, visit with professors, have some fun — student style

Parents of University students have been invited to join their offspring for classes, an open house and a weekend of campus activities today and Saturday.

"The events will help parents become acquainted with the campus and with their son or daughter's perspective on campus life," says Gary Peiss, a junior in computer science major, who chairs the Parent's Weekend planning committee.

All day Friday parents will be welcomed in their children's classes and lectures — although they have the option of not taking any midterms that might be scheduled.

The weekend schedule includes:

FRIDAY:

All Day — Parent's welcome to attend classes. A list of recommended classes will be available.

Noon — Parent's Registration

Tickets and other information will be available until 5 p.m. in Susan Campbell Hall, Room 111.

4:00 — Beer Garden

The EMU and the Cultural Forum will sponsor a beer garden at the tennis courts, 16th Avenue and Agate Street.

5:30 — 'Canoe Fete on the Mill Race

A floating parade with a theme of "Cities of the World" will begin at Franklin Boulevard across from Lawrence Hall. Winner of the Mystery Duck contest will be announced.

7:00 — Parent's Faculty Reception

A wine and cheese reception will be held in Gerlinger Alumni Lounge with University Pres. Paul Olum.

8:00 — Dougherty Dance Theater

The performance will be held in Gerlinger Annex. Cost is $3 for adults, $2 for students.

8:00 — "Look Back in Anger"

The performance will be held in the Arena Theatre, Villard Hall. Admission is $2.

SATURDAY:

8:00 — Undergraduate Art Show

8:00 — Special Olympics

Events will run until 3 p.m. at Hayward Field

9:00 — Parent's Registration

Tickets and other information will be available until Noon in the EMU Foyer.

9:30 — Parent's Association General Meeting

The meeting will be held in the EMU, Dad's Room.

10:00 — "Day on the Green"

A carnival will be held throughout the day at the corner of 15th Avenue and Agate Street, near several of the dorms.

10:15 — Faculty Lectures

A choice of two faculty lectures is being offered.

Robert Kime, a health education professor, will present "Stress and the College Environment," in the EMU, Room 215.

Ed Whitelaw, an economics professor, will present "Economic Recovery: How Soon? How Good?" in the EMU, Dad's Room.

11:00 — Faculty Lectures

A choice of three faculty lectures is being offered.

Sam Baker and William Byrne from the athletic department will present "Rebuilding Tradition and Spirit at the UO" in the EMU, Forum Room.

Grant McKernie, a theater arts professor, will present "Life in the Theater," in the EMU, Room 215.

Provost Richard Hill will present "Quality Education and the Future of the University," in the EMU, Dad's Room.

Noon — Spring Awards Luncheon
