Police beat

Among recent campus-area crimes reported by the Eugene Police Department were:

An attempted rape by a nude male suspect was reported early Sunday morning by a female University student as she walked near the east side of the EMU toward her dormitory room, according to Sgt. Rick Allison.

Allison said the suspect, described as a brown-haired white male, six feet, and 150 pounds, reportedly grabbed the woman after emerging from behind a corner of the building at 1:40 a.m. The woman apparently screamed and struggled, biting the suspect's hand. Allison said the man fled the scene.

A man with a similar description, also reported to be nude, was arrested at 2:40 a.m. on Monday morning near Villard Hall, said Allison.

A campus security officer discovered 23-year-old Ron Lee Lombard of Eugene sitting on the ground near the building masturbating. Lombard was charged with public indecency. Police were unable to connect the two incidents, said Allison.

A Cottage Grove man was arrested Wednesday for exposing himself to a woman near Hiron's Drug Store, said Officer Bob Holland. The woman apparently was on her way to campus at about 7:30 p.m. when Charles Leon Osband, 50, exposed himself to her.

The woman reported the license number of a car Osband was driving to police, who tracked him to Cottage Grove later that night. Osband was charged with public indecency.

A Eugene man was arrested at his Fair Oaks Drive residence Saturday and charged with two counts of first-degree theft and two counts of second-degree theft, said Allison.

Coleman Terrance McClintic, 24, reportedly stole a number of bank cards from dormitory residents and in one instance used a card to take $200 from the U.S. First National Bank.

Allison said McClintic is also a suspect in several backpack thefts from the University Library last month. Police are investigating McClintic's possible involvement in other crimes.

A $700 stereo system was reported stolen from a car parked at 13th Avenue and Alder Street last Friday, said Allison. Police have no suspects but have discovered the theft happened between 11:30 p.m. Thursday and 1:30 a.m. Friday.

Jewelry, watches, tape recorders and other property worth $265 was reported stolen from an Agate Street dormitory room Wednesday. Police have no suspects in the incident.

A purse containing $60 was reported stolen from the EMU, said Allison. No suspects have been arrested.

Six campus vending machines were discovered broken into this week, said Allison. One soft-drink machine was missing $40, and police investigating reported assorted amounts of change missing from others.

A car parked near 15th Avenue and Columbia Street dormitory area was reportedly vandalized last weekend, said Allison. Damage, which included dents and scratches, was listed at $400.

Seven bicycles were reported stolen since last Friday.
