Dance concert highlights week

"A Choreographer's Retrospective," a dance concert choreographed by Joellen Meglin-Roan, is scheduled for Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Dougherty Dance Theatre in Gerlinger Annex, Room 354. Tickets, available at the door, are $3 for the general public and $1.50 for students. The program will feature Meglin-Roan's "Renaissance Dances and Vignettes," which premiered in Omaha, Nebraska, in 1981. A premiere work set to piano music by Schubert will also be performed by University dance students.

Meglin-Roan's "Ritual Suite," choreographed to African drum music, will be What's happening at KWAX? Classic 91.1 FM will host a special state of the station presentation with a listener call-in Thursday during An Oregon Evening from 6:30-8 p.m.

June 30 marks the end of the KWAX 1982-83 fiscal year. Budget cuts at NPR will affect all National Public Radio stations and significant staff changes have been announced. The state of the station presentation and call-in will be hosted by General Manager Janet Kenney, Program Director Tom Dahlstrom and Development Director Denny Guehler. Listeners are invited to call 686-4245 with questions.

Good friends will help you study angles when all you can think about is curves.

It didn't take a genius to tell your mind wasn't on your studies. But it did take a couple of smart roomies to do something about it.

So out came the calculators. And the doughnuts. And they started drilling you until you knew physics as well as you know yourself.

When it was all over, you showed them that there was one more thing you knew something about - gratitude. Tonight, let it be Löwenbräu.

Löwenbräu. Here's to good friends.
