

Free concerts and easy listening

Jazz, classical music performed at Eugene Mall

Free public performances begin this month on the Eugene Downtown Mall and in several of the city's parks.

Showcase on the Mall, a weekly summer entertainment series on the downtown mall, features performers and musicians at noon.

Classical music will be featured on Mondays, a potpourri of musical entertainment and performances on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, jazz on Thursdays, and performances for children on Fridays.

Summer Supper Concerts in the Parks features classical, jazz, blue grass and reggae on Sunday, Mondays and Wednesdays during the early evening hours in several city parks. Performances have already begun at Skinner Butte Park. They will begin June 26 at Monroe Park, June 30 at Amazon Park, July 11 at Westmoreland Park, July 13 at University Park and July 17 at Washburne Park.

Summer Showcase on the Mall and Summer Supper Concerts in the Parks are sponsored by the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department with room tax funds.

Below is a partial listing of concerts and performances. Specific information on dates, times and locations will be available in the Emerald during the summer.
