MISCELLANEOUS

Planning is starting now for a women's summer night march and rally. All women are invited to participate. Call 686-3327 and ask for Charlotte, or stop by EMU 336. Women's Resource and Referral.

Northwest Coalition for Alternatives to Pesticides is looking for volunteers. The group especially wants help with supplying information on pesticide issues to individuals and organizations in the Northwest and throughout the nation. For more information contact Linda Reymers or Mary O'Brien at NCAP, 454 Willamette, P.O. Box 375 Eugene, 97440, 344-5044.

The City of Astoria is looking for vendors and artists to participate in the fundraising Antelope Street Fair on Aug. 20 from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Contact Ma Prem Kavido at 489-3301 or P.O. Box 13 Astoria for more information.

A march and rally for "Peace and Freedom" will be held on Sat. July 16 at 7:30 p.m. in Central Park, 8th and Monroe, Corvallis. The rally will feature music and speakers including Sen. Ruth McFarland, Lloyd Marbet, Gene Crumley and Lois Kenagy. The public is urged to bring their own signs expressing their opinions on such issues as the nuclear freeze, the MX missile, Pershing II and Cruise missiles, the Trident submarine, U.S. involvement in El Salvador, draft registration and other issue relating to the peace and freedom of this nation and the world. Childcare will be provided. The event is sponsored by Student Committees on Peace Education. For more information contact Jonathan Smith at 752-3645.

FILM

A film, "The End of the Road," will be shown at 2 p.m. and 2:45 p.m. today in the Gold Room of Carson Hall as part of a series of ongoing studies being done by the Counseling Psychology Department. The general area of men's perceptions of sexual issues is being researched, and two short questionnaires will be given at the end of each showing, the total time for the film and questionnaires being about 35 minutes. All men are welcome to give their input to this study. Contact Martin Acker CPSY, 686-5501, for further details.
