LA NUIT de VARENNES

"A brainy, compulsively absorbing film..." Jack Kroll, Newsweek
"A masterly film, at once superbly intelligent and strangely poignant" Richard Schickel, Time
"Tumultuously funny. 'La Nuit de Varennes' is acted to the hilt by everyone in it." Vincent Canby, NY Times

Director Ettore Scola takes the historical occurrence of Louis XVI's attempted flight from France as the basis for this delightful, fast moving tale. In pursuit of the King's coach, we find none other than American Revolutionary Thomas Paine (Keitel), aging ladies-man Casanova (Mastroianni), French writer Restif de Bretonne (Barrault), and the beautiful, passionately monarchist Countess de Borde (Schygulla). Scola deftly captures the sense of immediacy and humor in this potentially ponderous subject, yet his characters are endowed with an awareness of the far-reaching significance of the events they witness.
