

Building hours will change during break

Although most summer session classes are finished, many University services will remain open in the interim period between summer and fall terms. The following is a list of many campus-area service's hours:

Correction

Due to confusion in the production of Tuesday's Emerald Joan Herman's byline was left off the article "Fast for Life" on page 1. Herman deserves credit for the well-written and lengthy article.

Finally, a writing error that mysteriously slipped through the Emerald's fail-safe, but not fool-proof, proofreading process allowed Gloria Steinem to be named "Gloria Steinman" in a page 5 article of Tuesday's edition.

Beginning Monday, the EMU will be open weekdays from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. until Sept. 6. After Sept. 6, it will be open weekdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The EMU will remain closed on weekends through the summer. It will resume its regular hours Sept. 20.

The main library will be open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Beginning Monday, it will be closed weekends until fall term begins.

Esslinger and Gerlinger indoor athletic facilities, such as the weight room and locker rooms, will remain open weekdays from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. On weekends, the outdoor facilities, such as the tennis and racquetball courts, will be free of charge. A gate near the tennis courts will be left unlocked to let people through when Esslinger is closed weekends.

Gerlinger pool will not reopen until fall term. Leighton Pool will continue its summer schedule until Sept. 11, when it will be closed through Sept. 26.

The Health Center will remain open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. It is closed weekends. After Sept. 2, the Health Center will be closed until Sept. 19. There will be no emergency services during that time.

The Counseling Center's hours will not change during the interim period. It is open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

All offices in Oregon Hall will remain open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. during the interim period.

The Law School will remain open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The University bookstore will retain its summer hours until fall term begins. It is open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. It is closed weekends during the summer.

The Museum of Art, which has been closed most of the summer due to budget cuts, will not reopen until Sept. 5. Its will be open noon to 5 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday except holidays. Free public tours will be available at 2 p.m. every Sunday. The art museum is free of charge.

The museum's fall season officially begins Oct. 2, with an exhibit from its permanent collection of one of the country's most comprehensive collections of Chinese Ch'ing dynasty costumes.

The lobby and main floor changing galleries will form the stage for the show "Decoding Dragons: Status Garments of the Ch'ing Dynasty." The exhibit will run through Nov. 6.

The Museum of Natural History, will reopen Sept. 20.
