

EMU Main Desk offers various services from concert tickets to film developing

If you need it, the EMU Main Desk probably has it. If you need it done, the EMU Main Desk probably does it.

From tickets to Tel-Info to tobacco, here is a list of what you can do there:

- Buy a variety of items, including popcorn, postage stamps, newspapers, magazines, candy, cookies and cards.

- Buy concert tickets, theater tickets, Hult Center tickets.

- Buy Greyhound, Trailways and Oregon Coast Lines tickets.

- Place an ad with the Emerald.

- Cash a check for up to $10.15 — including the 15

cent service charge.

- Pay utility bills.

- Get film developed.

- Buy Lane Transit District bus tokens and passes.

- Sign out keys to rooms like the Piano Room.

- Get a vending machine refund.

- Buy International Student Identification cards.

- Buy Youth Hostel cards.

- Visit the occasional vendors nearby, selling Mexican coats, pottery, famous prints, etc.

- Call the desk's Tel-Info number, at 686-4636, to hear tapes that will answer your questions on just about anything related to the University.

Photo by Mark Pynes

Main Desk sells just about anything students may want.

ANNOUNCING University of Oregon Downtown Program Fall 1983

3 UNIQUE EVENTS DESIGNED ESPECIALLY FOR THE WHOLE COMMUNITY

1.

A LECTURE SERIES - AGING, A HUMAN PROCESS

Oct. 4 - Perspectives in Aging

Oct. 11 - Political Issues & Aging

Oct. 18 - Physical Development & Aging

Oct. 25 - Financial Strategies

Nov. 1 - Confrontations of Death

Nov. 8 - Life Style Management

Each lecture begins at 12:15 at the Eugene Hotel Retirement Center and will be approximately 40 minutes in duration. A 75¢ donation is asked and the resources collected will be given to the President's Scholarship Fund. Anyone interested is welcome to any or all lectures. Call 686-4103 or 686-4231 for additional information.

2.

MICRO COMPUTERS FOR EARLY BIRDS

These early morning courses (non-credit) introduce business people and professionals to microcomputer developments. The four week sessions provide an orientation to both hardware (IBM PC) and assorted software; how they work, who is using them and what they do. Guest lectures on Lotus 1, 2, 3; Perfect Writer and communications software are scheduled. Fee is $25, meets Tue./Thur. 7-7:45 a.m. in Gilbert Hall on campus. Instructor: R. Trebon. Call 686-4231 to register or register at first class meeting.

The class will be offered three times during fall term:

September 27 through October 20

October 25 through November 17

November 22 through December 15

3.

A REGULAR CREDIT CLASS

"THE HISTORY OF JAZZ"

This class, Mus 355, is available to all University students and the surrounding community. The course is a survey of Jazz covering all periods from turn of the century to present. It analyzes the music of such greats as Duke Ellington, Count Basie, Woodie Herman, Charlie Parker and Miles Davis. Trends in vocal jazz are also discussed; primarily a listening course. Instructor: Steve Stone. Registration will be available at the first class meeting, September 26. The class meets from 12:00 to 1:30 every Monday and Wednesday in the Eugene Hotel Retirement Center. For additional information call 686-3761 or 686-5614.