Breakfast, an easy walk to campus-area cafes

Relax. Let someone do the cooking for you.

There's a whole bevy of breakfast places around the University area, with virtually everything being served that your mom, dad or maid fixed for you while you were still at home.

Some of the lowest prices for breakfast can be found at the Fountain Court Cafe in the EMU. Open from 7-10:30 a.m. Monday through Friday, the cafe serves up breakfast specials of two eggs, hashbrowns, toast and jelly for $1.25. Three-egg omelettes served with hashbrowns and toast go for $1.75, while croissants, juice, stashed tea, fresh fruit and other items can be purchased there.

Right off campus on Kincaid is Rennie's Landing, which is open for breakfast from 7:30-10:30 a.m. Monday through Friday with later hours on Saturday.

Rennie's has a special of two eggs, hash browns or home fries, toast or english muffin, small wedges of fruit and coffee or tea for $1.50. Rennie's also features Allann Brothers coffee and Genesis apple juice.

John and Sandy's on Alder is "The Breakfast Place." The menu is almost exclusively breakfast orientated, and the jam, bread, cinnamon rolls and other foods are made right in the restaurant.

Open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m., John and Sandy's offers a breakfast special for $1.75 that changes every week.

Breakfast specials change just about every day at the Campus Glenwood, which is located on Alder and is open from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. The menu features over 10 different kinds of omelettes, including "The Works," which has ham, mushrooms, bell peppers, onions, cheese and Spanish sauce for $3.95. Campus Glenwood also has outdoor seating.

There are quite a few restaurants on Broadway and Franklin which either exclusively serve breakfast or have a large breakfast menu. These include three pancake houses, one Dunkin' Donuts and two locally-owned restaurants, Hoots and Mission Mexican Cuisine along the "strip."

Hoots is open 24 hours a day and serves breakfast 24 hours a day. The menu includes everything from a 16-ounce rib steak with eggs to omelettes, waffles and homemade buns. Hoots also has three breakfast specials and 35-cent coffee with up to three free refills.

The Excelsior has a Sunday brunch from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. If Eggs Benedict, Eggs Florentine or other fancy dishes sound good and the pocketbook is ready and willing, this brunch is for you. The Excelsior also serves a continental breakfast from 9-11 a.m. on weekdays.

Poppi's serves breakfast Saturday and Sunday only from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The menu is, of course, decidedly Greek in flavor. "Frittata Genovese" is a spinach, basil, cheese and onion omelette topped with parmesan cheese.

Lenny's Nosh Bar has a champagne brunch on Sunday from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Four-egg omelettes for $2.25 are served along with the 75 cent champagne.
