

German
AUTO SERVICE

"Since 1963"

VWs - MERCEDES - BMWs
DATSUN - TOYOTA - AUDI

Reliable Service For Your Foreign Auto

342-2912 2025 Franklin Blvd.

INTRODUCING

SELF SERVE WORD PROCESSING

featuring...

- IBM personal computers
- Epson RX-80 printers
- Diablo 630 printer

and

- Perfect Writer™ Software

Open 7 Days

kinko's copies

"where quality counts"

860 E. 13th, Eugene 344-7894

SJSU outlasts Ducks

Oregon's 17-point third quarter burst wiped aside by fourth quarter turnovers

By Steve Turcotte
Of the Emerald

It was a reversal of roles for the Oregon Ducks Saturday night at Spartan Stadium in San Jose, Calif.

Usually, it's the defense that keeps Oregon close in football games with the offense playing catch-up.

Against San Jose State's Spartans, it was the Duck offense, not the defense, that kept the game close before Oregon bowed 44-34 in the final non-league game for both schools.

For the Ducks, now 1-3 on the season, the game proved that its offense could put points on the scoreboard and produce big numbers statistically. But the game also proved that the Duck defense is vulnerable — vulnerable against both the run and the pass against a good football team.

"I'm pleased that we were able to score some points offensively," said Oregon coach Rich Brooks, "but at the same time we just didn't play real good defense. We are very inexperienced in the secondary and at linebacker and it showed."

It did show, and quite early in the game for that matter.

The Spartans jumped on the Ducks twice in the first quarter. On their first possession, San Jose drove 36 yards for a touchdown and on its second touch of the ball, drove 64 yards for another score.

While the Oregon defense sputtered, its offense was slowly getting untracked. The Ducks pulled to within seven points when quarterback Mike Jorgensen hit speedster Lew Barnes on a 67-yard touchdown pass with 5:52 left in the first quarter. After San Jose State took a safety four minutes later, the Ducks trailed just 14-9.

"The game really went in stages," said Brooks. "They jumped on us 14-0 early, then we got the long one and it went back and forth."

San Jose State scored 10 unanswered points to take a 23-9 advantage with 6:44 remaining in the first half.

But Jorgensen proceeded to lead the Ducks on a 72-yard drive, culminating when he hit tight end Rich Gaiser on an 11-yard TD pass.

That swung the pendulum towards the Oregon side and the Ducks were able to take advantage of the momentum change in the third quarter.

The Ducks took the lead on their initial possession when Jorgensen hit Kevin McCall on a 30-yard touchdown pass. Oregon increased its lead to 31-23 on a McCall halfback-option pass to Osborn Thomas from 23 yards out.

Oregon had a golden opportunity to blow the game wide open when linebacker Lerry Wilson intercepted a Jon Carlson pass and returned it to the Spartan nine-yard line. The Ducks were not able to capitalize, though, only getting a Paul Schwabe field goal.

"Our inability to get the ball in the end zone on that interception really hurt us," said Brooks. "Things really started going bad after that."

And quicker than you can say come-from-behind, things went from bad to worse for the Ducks.

San Jose State immediately rebounded on its next possession, driving 74 yards for a touchdown when Carlson hit wide receiver Eric Richardson from seven yards out. That made it 34-31 with almost a whole quarter to play.

On the ensuing kickoff, Oregon's Doug Judge fumbled the ball away, giving it to the Spartans at the Oregon 25. It took San Jose just three plays to take the lead for good at 37-34 when Dave Criswell scored from the one-yard line.

"That fumble was really a back-breaker," Brooks said.

The Spartans sealed the victory on their next possession when Carlson tossed a 26-yard touchdown pass to Richardson with seven minutes remaining.

For the Duck defense, it wasn't exactly an impressive performance. San Jose State gained 117 yards rushing and 359 yards passing for 476 total yards including 26 first downs. Carlson connected on 22 of 40 passes, was intercepted just one time and sacked just once.

Oregon, led by Mike Jorgensen's career passing performance, rolled up its highest point total since its 47-21 victory over Oregon State in 1981.

Jorgensen hit on 13 of 26 passes for 224 yards and three touchdowns, in what Brooks called "his best performance since he has been here."

The Ducks will now take on California Saturday at Autzen Stadium. And by the looks of Cal's 33-33 tie with Arizona, the Ducks will have a lot of work to do to get ready for the Bears.

Take it easy

Lane Transit District will offer free parking to those who wish to take LTD buses direct to Oregon football games this fall.

LTD will provide shuttles to the stadium from parking lots at Valley River Inn, Lane County Fairgrounds, South Eugene High School and River Road Transit Station. The shuttles will operate for all remaining Duck home games.

Regular fares will apply on the shuttle routes, and LTD passes and tokens will be accepted as well. Patrons can transfer to LTD shuttles from other buses at no extra charge.

For more information, call 687-5555.

FALL 1983 CONVOCATION UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

1:30 p.m. • Monday, October 3 • Memorial Quadrangle

"Humanistic Imperatives in a Technological Society"

Dr. Peter Pouncey, speaker, Professor, Columbia University, President-Elect, Amherst College

List of seminars:

2:45-3:45 p.m.

"Robots and Czech Literature"

Bean McFadden, Director, Affirmative Action
133 Gilbert Hall

"Wilderness and Technology"

Charles Wilkinson, Professor, School of Law
138 Gilbert Hall

"The Politics of Aging in America:
Golden Age or Raw Deal?"

Jeanne Bader, Director, Gerontology
Ross Anthony, Assistant Professor, Economics
Nancy Fadeley, Director of Public Affairs, KWAX
231 Gilbert Hall

"The Limits of Corporate Social Responsibility"

Robert Smith, Professor, Economics
and Business Administration
331 Gilbert Hall

"Convivial Technology for the Global Village"

Edward Comstock, Research Associate,
International Studies
Gerald Fry, Assistant Director, International Studies
238 Gilbert Hall

"Career Choices in a Technological Society"

Paul Frishkoff, Associate Professor, Accounting
341 Gilbert Hall

2:45-5:00 p.m.

Film: Goodbye Gutenberg

Alan Kimball, Director, Honors College
Discussion Leader
150 Geology Building

4:00-5:00 p.m.

"The Face of Battle: Technology and
No-Man's Land in World War I"

Roger Chickering, Professor, History
Joan Pierson
133 Gilbert Hall

"Tradition in the Humanities"

William Calin, Professor, Romance Languages
138 Gilbert Hall

"Implications for Working Women of the New Technology"

Joan Acker, Director, Center for the Study of Women in Society
Steven Deutsch, Professor, Sociology
Donald Van Houten, Professor, Sociology
231 Gilbert Hall

"Lessons from the Anasazi 'Sundagger':
A Marriage of Humanistic and Technological Endeavor"

Caroline Shell, Head, Department of Dance
331 Gilbert Hall

"Public Involvement in Energy Planning"

Dan Goldrich, Professor, Political Science
341 Gilbert Hall

"Drugs for Mental Illness: A Revolution in Psychiatry"

Barbara Gordon-Lickey, Professor, Psychology
Marvin Gordon-Lickey, Professor, Psychology
238 Gilbert Hall

McArthur Court will be the convocation site in case of inclement weather

Repairs on Volkswagen!

10%
Student Discount

- Tune ups
- Engine Overhaul
- Brake Service
- Electrical
- Factory Trained Mechanic

Free Local Pick Up and Delivery

Call for an Estimate

342-7465

Guaranteed OPEN 7 DAYS