Coffee shop slates guitar concert series

Devotees of classical, jazz and traditional guitar can look forward to an unprecedented year-long series of eight "Coffee Concerts," co-sponsored by Allann Brothers Coffee Company and the Eugene Guitar Association.

The concerts, the third Sunday of every month at The Beanery, 790 East 14th Ave., will feature some of the Northwest's best guitarists. Eugene residents Neill Archer Roan and Don Latarski as well as Portland-based virtuoso Paul Chasman, have been scheduled.

Tickets for The Coffee Concert Series, which include all eight performances, are $15 and may be purchased at The Beanery or the Balladeer music shop on the third floor of the Fifth Street Public Market. Seating is limited.

Coffee Concert Series calendar:

Neill Archer Roan, classical, Oct. 16.
Paul Chasman, steel string, Nov. 20.
Don Latarski, jazz, Jan. 15.
David Case and Pamela Birrell, guitar and flute, Feb. 19.
James Kline, classical, Mar. 11.
Gregory Field, steel string/Irish traditional, Apr. 8.
Garry Hagberg, jazz, May 20.

police beat

Campus area crimes for the week include the following:

A window was broken in a door at the north end of the education building. There was no evidence of theft or vandalism. The episode is being labeled criminal mischief.

The locker room at Leighton Pool was broken into and a locker was buglarized. The lock was cut and $37 was reported missing.

A graphic equalizer and a number of cassettes and tools were stolen from a vehicle parked at 13th Avenue and Moss Street. Apparently a wire was inserted through the top of the window to open the door lock.

One bicycle was reported stolen this week. It was taken from in front of Earl Complex.

No suspects have been reported in any of the incidents.
