

Dupree selects USM

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP) — Marcus Dupree, the talented running back who suddenly left Oklahoma University last week, registered for classes Wednesday at the University of Southern Mississippi.

"I like Southern and I think it's an upcoming school and I want to be part of it," Dupree, 19, told a group of reporters waiting in the USM registrar's office. He will receive a full scholarship to attend the school.

Dupree said he had talked to Georgia about playing there but his real choice was between Southern Mississippi and Mississippi State. "I wanted to stay in Mississippi and play close to home," he said. His mother stood at his side as he registered and answered questions.

Dupree's hometown of Philadelphia, Miss., is about a two-hour drive from Hattiesburg.

Dupree said he looked at the future football schedules of both Southern Mississippi and Mississippi State, and at the players on each team before making his choice. "I think Southern has the better players and the better people," he said.

Dupree said he did not know the specific courses he would take at Southern, although he had signed up for so-called "QQ," or accelerated courses, which run one-half a semester in length. "I figured I needed to get into classes and start back to school because I didn't want to fall behind academically."

Golfers head to Stanford

Oregon's golf team will play in its second fall tournament when it travels to Palo Alto, Calif., for the Stanford Fall Intercollegiate Golf Tournament Friday and Saturday.

The Ducks will be one of 18 teams in the tournament. Others include defending Pac-10 champion UCLA, Arizona State University, Southern California, University of Arizona, Stanford University, Fresno State University, Northwestern University and San Jose State University.

The tournament will be a 54-hole affair, with each six-man team playing 27 holes per day.

Oregon will take Shell Joyner, George Daves, John DeLong, Gerry Norquist, Brian Castonguay and Paul Weinhold to Stanford.

In their only other appearance of the season, the golfers finished sixth in the 14-team Wolfpack Classic in Nevada Sept. 26-28.

Oregon coach Jim Ferguson has unabashedly called his 1983 team "one of the most talented teams I've ever had."

Following the Stanford tournament, Oregon will play in its third and final tournament, the Southwest Intercollegiate Tournament, Nov. 6.
