Notables

"Dracula," UT's season opener begins Thurs., Oct. 27, at Robinson Theatre. Set in the 19th century, the 1927 Deane and Balderston version of Bram Stoker's novel, "Dracula" will furnish an evening of horror, mystery and romance. Tickets are $5 for the public, $3.25 for University students, and $4 for other students and seniors. The play also runs Oct. 28-29, Oct. 31, and Nov. 3-5.

The Oregon Mozart Players will present a concert Sat., Oct. 22, at the Soreng Theater. The program includes works by Boyce, Vaughan, Bach, Williams and Hayden. The performance is at 7:30; tickets are $5.50.

"The Right Stuff," the film based on Tom Wolfe's best-selling 1979 astronaut novel, is scheduled for national release, Fri., Oct. 21. Starring Barbara Hershey, Scott Coleman, Dennis Quaid and Sam Shepard (pictured above as Chuck Yeager,) the Warner Bros. film is expecting as many bucks as John Glenn is votes.

Taj Mahal, "a powerhouse of folk and blues," will be in the EMU Ballroom on Oct. 21, at 8 p.m. Tickets for the event, which is sponsored by the Cultural Forum, are $5.50 for University students, $6.50 for general public in advance; $6.50 for students and $7.50 for general public on the day of the show. They're available at the EMU main desk.

"Rickshaw Boy," China's entry for this year's Academy Awards will kick off the China Film Festival at the Bijou. Showing on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 22 and 23, at 2 p.m., the film is the first of five contemporary mainland movies brought to Eugene from China. The remaining four films, all of which have never been released in the U.S., will show at the same time for the next four weekends. Admission is $2.50.

Jane Van Boskirk stars in "Prodigal Daughters" tonight, Oct. 21, at 7:30 p.m., in the Hult's Soreng Theater. The play was written by Oregon playwright, Dorothy Velasco. Tickets are $5.50.

It's a party tonight at W.O.W. Hall to celebrate Earth River Records and Tapes' second anniversary. Four local bands, "The Billy Boys," "Milkmen," "Hoodlums," and "The Evolutionary Dance Band," will provide music. Admission is free and all ages are welcome.

A concert by Kate Clinton, a well-known feminist humorist, will be held in the EMU Forum Sat., Oct. 22. Admission to the event, which is sponsored by the Gay and Lesbian Alliance (GALA), is $5. Clinton, who recently released an album of live performances called "Making Light," considers herself a "fumerist" — that's feminine and humorist. She maintains that unlike men's humor, which is based on the maintenance of the status quo, feminist humor focuses on a vision of change. "There is nothing new under the sons. They are always dead serious," she jokes. Clinton will also facilitate a workshop on "Women and Humor," Sunday at 2 p.m. in the EMU Forum.
