Notables

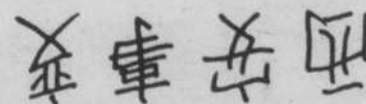

"Bolero" will be presented at the Hult's Silva by the Eugene Ballet Company tonight, Nov. 4, and again at 8 p.m. on Sat., Nov. 5. The performance features guest artists Evelyn Cisneros and Kirk Peterson of the San Francisco Ballet, and University Dance professor, Caroline Shell. Tickets range from $5.50 to $35.50.

Surrealistic black and white photos by Florida photographer Jerry Uelsmann are hanging at the Oregon Gallery at the University Art Museum. The museum is free and open to the public Wed.-Sun., noon to 5 p.m.

"Under Fire," a story of three American journalists caught up in the drama of the 1979 Nicaraguan Revolution, is playing at the Valley River Twin. It stars Nick Nolte, Gene Hackman and Ed Harris (of "The Right Stuff" fame).

Three University art students have had their work accepted for a traveling exhibit by the Association of College Unions-International. The work of Janette Hopper, Dave McKay, and Bruce Wagner will travel throughout the Northwest, Alaska and Canada.

"The Xian Incident," a film gem from China, will show Nov. 5 and 6 at the Bijou. Admission is $2.50. Times are 12:15 and 2:20 p.m.
