Intramural Flag Football is now into playoffs. All weekday games are at 3:35. There are some games scheduled on Saturday so check the schedule at the RIM Office. The new requirement of winning one game has increased the number of teams in the playoffs this year. Seventy percent of teams entered in flag football this year made the playoffs. Congratulations to all participants!

3 x 3 Basketball Tournament will be a two day tournament this year. Teams will play in round robin pool and then go on to a single elimination. Entries are due by 5:00pm on November 14. The tournament will be November 15 and 16 at 3:30pm. Get your team organized now. A team consists of 3 players and may have one alternate.

Racquetball and Tennis Court Reservations - As the skies become gray, the daylight diminishes and rain begins to drip, thoughts turn to indoor activities. Take advantage of the court reservation service offered by RIM. Advance reservations can be made. Come in for details on HOW TO MAKE A RESERVATION.

Badminton Singles Tournament is scheduled for Saturday, November 12 at Gerlinger Annex. Play in the Novice or Open division. Entries are due Friday, November 11 by 5:00pm. Play begins at 10:15am on Saturday. Entry blanks are available in the RIM office, 103 Gerlinger.

Although one lure of conference membership is an automatic bowl bid if you win the conference title, the closest Oregon has come since a 1958 appearance in the Rose Bowl was a tie for second place in 1970. The quarterback that year for Oregon? Dan Fouts, pictured above as a professional San Diego Charger.

Pac-10 membership blessing and burden

Being a member of an athletic conference can either be a blessing in disguise or one frustration after another for a university.

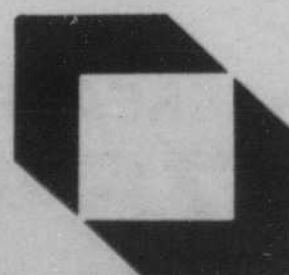

It can be a blessing if you are a school like Oregon. Because you are in a conference where television revenue is increasing yearly and national exposure is commonplace — and not necessarily because of what the Ducks do, but what the other conference teams are doing — you stand to reap money without lifting a finger.

Being involved in a conference can be frustrating if you are Southern Cal or UCLA. You are forced to play the same schools in league play in all sports instead of having the opportunity to randomly select opponents that might bring more at the gate in receipts. Being a member of a conference, in football, limits the conference winner to playing in the Rose Bowl — and thus a potential missed chance at a possible national championship if the Big 10 winner is weak that year.

Living as an independent is the road to take for some schools but not for others. For
