

sidelines

Emerald sports magazine

Wednesday, November 9, 1983

Can we compete in the Pacific-10?

4B
Can anything be done?

Oregon spends much of its time serving as the Pacific-10 Conference's doormat. Athletic Director Rick Bay offers how the Ducks can get out of their rut — and remain in the Pac-10.

6B
Oregon once an independent?

For four years in the early 1960s, Oregon was an independent before joining the Pacific-8 Conference in 1964.

8B
Abandon the Pac-10?

Should Oregon abandon the "Race for the Roses" and hook up with another league — like the Western Athletic Conference.