

Oregon beats Stanford, ends Bay Area blues

PALO ALTO, Calif. — Oregon's football team ended its Bay Area jinx Saturday afternoon against Stanford University. The Ducks, winless since 1979 in the Bay Area, finally ended that winless skein with a 16-7 Pac-10 victory over the Cardinal. Oregon's last win in the Bay Area was, ironically, a 16-7 win over Stanford in 1979. The victory moves the Ducks' conference record to 3-3 and their overall record to 4-6. Stanford fell to 1-6 and 1-9. "It was a good win for us because we haven't played well in the Bay Area in a long time," said Oregon coach Rich Brooks. "It was nice to finally break through and get a win down there."

Oregon's win came via an aggressive defense, a freshman quarterback and a solid running game. The Ducks held the Cardinal to 334 total yards and put a damper on Stanford's highly-touted passing game, as cornerback Danny McCalister picked off two John Payne aerials and freshman linebacker Grant Core swiped another. At the same time, Oregon's running game clicked for 253 yards, its biggest output since a win over University of California five weeks ago. Alex Mack led Oregon rushers with 63 yards on seven carries, including a 29-yard blast in the fourth quarter.

Oregon freshman quarterback Chris Miller, thrust into his first action last week against UCLA, completed 9 of 15 passes for 98 yards and had a hand in the Ducks' only touchdown, a five-yard scoring pass to tight end Doug Herman. "Chris did a good job in his first start," said Brooks. "We wanted to keep the pressure off him by running the football." Oregon jumped to a 13-0 halftime lead on the strength of Miller's TD pass and two Paul Schwabe field goals — one from 51 yards out. After Stanford closed to 13-7 in the third quarter, a 47-yard field goal by Schwabe with 1:39 left to play sealed the victory.
