THIS IS AN APOLOGY TO THE YOUNG MEN WHO WERE STANDING ON THE GRASSY SLOPE OF EMU COURTYARD FRIDAY MAY 11.

To explain myself, I have to tell you that I had just come from a class that reminded me of the value Reagan puts on life that isn't caucasian-native American. When I saw your "Re-elect Reagan" banner I was overcome with anger. I wanted to tear up your banner and you along with it. Instead, I let my hand, my finger in particular, make an obscene gesture. You, in your innocence, asked me if that was an offer. I screamed back at you the foulest instructions I could think of. I let my anger take control. That was wrong, and I apologize. 5-15
