Weekend wet but... weather can't dampen the spirit

It was a weekend that just begged for sunshine. But the sun seemed to exhaust itself as the Crazy 8s finished the outdoor beer garden (photo bottom right) on the Alder Street tennis courts Friday afternoon.

Saturday's skies turned cloudy, frequent showers forcing the Willamette Valley Folk Festival indoors and a wet Hayward Field track slowing times but not dampening the enthusiasm of contestants and crowd at the Oregon Special Olympics (photo right).

Sunday, parents checked out the Eugene campus scene on the last day of Parent's Weekend (photo far right) and Kevin Skipper (photo below), backed by the University Gospel Ensemble, sang "I Don't Believe He Brought Me This Far to Leave Me," to open the folk fest Sunday.
