SOFTWARE DOCUMENTATION
We are a national software company based in Eugene. This summer we will be undertaking a major revision of manuals for our software line. For this project we need temporary, full-time personnel to work as: - Copy editors: For these positions, you should have good writing skills and editorial experience. You should also be familiar with computers and word processing software. - Technical editors: For these positions, you should have experience with applications software. In addition, you should have good oral and written communications skills. We need people who can work with a minimum of supervision, yet meet deadlines. If you meet these requirements, please send a resume and writing samples to: Documentation: Temporary P.O. Box 1479 Eugene, Oregon 97440 5-29

Organize!
Are you interested in gaining valuable experience in a small group setting with other highly motivated and concerned students in the environmental field? The Survival Center is offering just such an experience for the 1984-85 school year.

SEARCHING FOR A MORE REWARDING WORK-STUDY JOB NEXT FALL? If you're interested in alternatives to the standard University curriculum and/or experimental and innovative teaching techniques, consider working for SEARCH. SEARCH, a student-run ASUO agency, offers students the opportunity to teach a class to their peers, and helps organize and present non-credit workshops. We are looking for two people to fill the positions of DIRECTOR/UNIVERSITY RELATIONS COORDINATOR and EDUCATION COORDINATOR. We need individuals with initiative, responsibility, independence and thoroughness. Experience in teaching or education administration is helpful but not essential. These jobs offer a high level of responsibility and hands-on experience in education and management. Responsibilities include: DIRECTOR/UNIVERSITY RELATIONS COORDINATOR: program development, liaison between University administration, ASUO and SEARCH, management, trouble-shooting, public relations. $4,700/yr. or $100/mo. stipend. Stipend is available over the summer. EDUCATION COORDINATOR: teaches course preparer's seminar, coordinating course approval with academic departments and administrative agencies, oversees student-run classes and procedures. $4,700/yr. or $50/mo. stipend. For information, call SEARCH, 686-4305, m111, EMU. 2911:6-1
