

UO Bookstore

Wilson

TENNIS BALLS
3 BALL CAN

$1.99 CAN

REG. $3.49/CAN

*Limit 6 cans/customer

Serving the Needs
of Our Members Since 1920

UO BOOKSTORE
13th & Kincaid
M-F 7:30-5:30
SAT 10:00-3:00
Supplies 686-4331

Ya got the 'Final' Blues
Blow it off with the

L.A.S.T.
BEER GARDEN

Curtis Salgado
& In Yo' Face

Fri. June 1
4-7 p.m.
EMU Ballroom

Tickets $1
at the EMU Main Desk Only
I.D. Required

inter/national

From Associated Press Reports

House OKs defense bill

WASHINGTON — The House passed 324-75 on Wednesday night sweeping new rules designed to open wide the competition for the manufacture of military spare parts and preclude the defense industry from charging exorbitant prices for common tools and other items.

The critical vote came on an amendment proposed by Rep. Berkley Bedell, D-Iowa, that would allow any manufacturer — rather than just those on the Pentagon's "qualified suppliers" list — to sell replacement parts. And it requires those sellers to offer items at prices comparable to commercial rates, when applicable.

Bedell's proposal was fiercely opposed by senior members of the Armed Services Committee, who argued it went too far and could endanger the lives of military men and women by putting inferior products in their hands.

The House also adopted 396-0 a related measure, sponsored by Rep. Bill Nichols, D-Ala., that would prohibit prime contractors from hiding the true manufacturer of certain parts and establish "competition advocates" in all defense agencies.

The Nichols proposal also would bar industry from restricting technical data or retaining monopoly rights on the manufacture of any item for more than seven years.

Rep. Jack Brooks, D-Texas, wore a 45-cent allen wrench in his lapel for which the Pentagon paid $9,000. And Bedell recounted how the Navy paid $436 for a $7 claw hammer, and $466 for a $1.49 socket.

But Brooks, who supported the Nichols proposal, unsuccessfully argued against adoption of Bedell's amendment, saying that "This would eliminate qualified bidders. If we killed every program that experienced some little horror story, we wouldn't have a Department of Defense."

Iraq attacks Iran oil base

BAGHDAD, Iraq — Iraqi jetfighters attacked a "big naval target" Wednesday south of Kharg Island, Iran's main oil terminal in the Persian Gulf, an Iraqi military spokesman announced.

The unidentified spokesman, reading a communique over Baghdad state television, said all jetfighters "returned safely to base after carrying out the successful attack this evening."

The spokesman said the attack "underlines our determination to tighten the blockade imposed on all Iranian ports, including Kharg Island," which is about 125 miles south of Iraq.

There was no immediate confirmation of an attack.

US protests Soviet attack

WASHINGTON — The United States has lodged a strong protest with Soviet authorities over an incident in which an American diplomat in Leningrad was beaten by a group of young men, the State Department said Wednesday.

A U.S. official, speaking on condition he not be identified, said he believes the attack last month on U.S. Consul Roland Harms was ordered by Soviet authorities.

State Department spokesman John Hughes said Harms was attacked as he was leaving a restaurant on April 17.

In Moscow, a U.S. Embassy spokesman, who asked not to be identified, said Harms was "knocked to the ground and kicked" by the assailants. Hughes said Harms, 35, did not require hospitalization and plans to complete his tour of duty in Leningrad.

Harms, reached by telephone Wednesday in Leningrad, said he could confirm only that an incident took place in which he was accosted by Soviets. He would not make any other comment.

et al.

MEETINGS

CONSTITUTION COURT meets today at 3:30 p.m. Check the EMU Schedule Board for room number.

CIRCLE K SERVICE CLUB will hold its final meeting tonight in conjunction with our sponsoring Kiwanis Club. We will meet at 6:15 p.m. to drive over together. Dinner will be $4. Call Laura at 485-3692 for more information.

MISCELLANEOUS

ELEGANT STEW is a group of local poets who will present their poetry to the Eugene community June 1 at 8 p.m. in the EMU Forum Room. Presented by the EMU Cultural Forum.

ASCENSION DAY: Episcopal Campus Ministry will hold a service for Ascension Day at 4:30 p.m. today at the Koinonia Center, 1414 Kincaid. Everyone is invited to attend. For more information call 484-1707.

INTERVARSITY'S END-OF-THE-YEAR PICNIC: will be held Friday from 4 to 6 p.m.

at Alton Baker Park. Bring your own meat to BBQ and join the fun. In case of rain, site changed to Sandy and Helen's.

HEALTH EDUCATION MAJORS: are invited to attend a piano recital by Ray Tricker and potluck tonight from 6 to 8 p.m. at Gerlinger Lounge. This is a great opportunity to spend a few pleasant hours before finals and meet peers, faculty, and friends in the Health Education department. Please join us! Call 683-6484 for more information.

SENIOR & GRAD STUDENTS WORK-STUDY RECIPIENTS 1984-1985

Our program is hiring NOW for next year. Secure a position that directly relates to your area(s) of expertise AND learn new skills. In addition, we pay you to review and to prepare for the student you will be assigned.

WE NEED:

- Subject area tutors (2-20 hrs/wk)
- Study skill specialists (5-20 hrs/wk)
- Study table tutors (2-10 hrs/wk-nights)

1. your hours are flexible
2. your work sharpens your knowledge and skills
3. your starting pay is 4.91 and you are paid for

- training
- reporting
- meetings with staff
- meetings with students
- preparation

CONSIDER THE POSSIBILITIES

Pick up an application
at 23 Friendly Hall

With
JOY ASKEW
CHUCK HAMMER
RICHARD LANDRY
DOLETTE McDONALD
JANICE PENDARVIS
DAVID VAN TIEGHEM

ONLY OREGON APPEARANCE
"This Sunday Night"

JUNE 3 8:30 p.m.

HULT CENTER - SILVA HALL

Reserved seats $12⁵⁰ & $11⁵⁰

Available at Everybody's Records and the Hult Center Box Office Supported by P.C.V.A.

STORE IT THIS SUMMER

Check these features:

- ✓ Live-in Management
- ✓ Security Fencing
- ✓ Lighted Paved Grounds
- ✓ A Varied Selection Of Sizes (some heated)

Present this ad and receive our special student rate!

689-9230

OPEN 8 a.m.-6 p.m.
Just South of the
Gilbert Shopping Center
1026 Highway 99N
Eugene, OR 97402