

beers and draft for 65 cents a glass.

Excelsior Cafe,
754 East 13th Ave.

One of Eugene's finer restaurants, the Excelsior Cafe is a great place to take that special friend. The decor is brick, marble and oak with a European flare. The atmosphere is casual and relaxed, catering to community members, professors and students.

Offering 17 different bottled beers, this establishment features one drink, the "Golden Section," only to be found at the Excelsior. Concocted by a certain group of University architecture students, the drink is a warmed blend of rum, amaretto, kahlua, creme de cacao, coffee and whipped cream served in a tall glass with a hint of lemon juice. Allowed to stand, The Golden Section separates into layers, making a colorful and exotic drink.

Vet's Club, 1626 Willamette
The Vet's Club was established in 1948, and in the past 36 years has become a

Eugene landmark. Serving the strongest and lowest-priced mixed drinks in town (including a kamakazi mix that's almost toxic), the Vet's Club also has a full kitchen, a dance floor and live music on weekends.

Early '50s diner decor creates an atmosphere that attracts a diverse clientele with ages varying from 21 to 81.

Zenon Cafe, 898 Pearl
Zenon is Eugene's most contemporary cafe establishment. With a mid-downtown location, sleek furniture and two walls of windows which extend from ceiling to floor, the Zenon Cafe attracts an upbeat crowd.

Zenon features 10 different bottled beers, an extensive wine list, coffees and 30 different desserts. It's a great place for lunch, dinner or simply a late night study break.

Shilo Inn, 3350 Gateway, Springfield
Though located roughly five miles from campus, the Shilo Inn is worth checking out. The Shilo is a large lounge complete with a full bar, stage, dance floor and ample seating. It features happy hour and live rock music each night.

The dress is casual to sporty; the average age of clientele is about 26 years. The Shilo Inn attracts some couples but mainly singles.

The cover charge and beer are each $1.50., and the service is excellent.
