

Hult hosts blues king

The word "blues" and the name B.B. King are almost interchangeable. In the midst of his 36th year in show business, B.B. King is one of the most popular and most successful blues artists around. He has more top-selling blues and rhythm-and-blues recordings to his credit than any other performer in modern times.

King will be at the Hult Center's Silva Hall Monday night for one show only. A Eugene favorite, Paul Delay, will open the show at 8 p.m. Reserve seat tickets are available for $11.50 and $12.50.
