

Playoffs nearing

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — There are plenty of impressive numbers being tossed around in anticipation of tonight's opening game of the American League Championship Series between the Detroit Tigers and the Kansas City Royals. The Tigers were 6-0 at Royals Stadium this year. Kansas City has reached the playoffs five of the past nine seasons. Detroit got off to the fastest start in major-league history and wound up with baseball's best record. What matters? "Everybody knows that Willie Wilson ignites the Royals and that George Brett is the power guy," said Jack Morris, 19-11, Detroit's Game 1 starter. Detroit roared to a 35-5 start and coasted before winning the American league East title Sept. 18. Kansas City began the season without Wilson, who was serving a cocaine-use suspension, and Brett, who had undergone knee surgery, and had to scrap before winning the weaker American League West Sept. 28.
