M★A★S★H, Robert Altman's original cockeyed masterpiece, shows tonight at 7 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. in 160 PLC. Tickets are $2.

Beatles fans unite. WOW Hall will host the Fourth Annual John Lennon Birthday Celebration Saturday, Oct. 6. Festivities begin at 8:30 p.m. and include live music, rare videos and a masquerade contest. Admission is $4 at the door.

Andre Segovia's protege, guitar virtuoso Manuel Lopez-Ramos will give a concert Sunday, Oct. 7, at 3 p.m. in Linn Benton Community College's Takena Theatre. Tickets are $3 for students and can be purchased at the College Center Office at LBCC.

The Designers' Forum of Eugene is presenting the second annual "Business Images," an exhibit of promotional graphics by Eugene-area designers. The graphics are on display in the Jacobs Community Room Gallery in the Hult Center through October 13.

Darol Anger and Mike Marshall, formerly of the David Grisman Quartet, will present a concert Friday, Oct. 5, at the WOW Hall. Virtuosos of nearly every stringed instrument imaginable, the duo blend jazz, classical, bluegrass and bebop to create a new form of acoustic music. Tickets are $7 at the EMU Main Desk. Showtime is 8:30 p.m.

"New Angular," an exhibition of color photographs by Washington, D.C. photographer J. Michael Lesko will be featured through October in the Photography at Oregon Gallery at the University art museum. Rather than accepting the traditional rectangular format, Lesko cuts and rips into the edges of the photographs, extending or contracting the frame. The museum is free and open to the public from noon to 5 p.m. Wednesdays through Sundays, except holidays.

High tide rolls into 150 Geology tonight for the showing of "Splash." Tickets are $1.50 and showtimes are 7 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

"French Canadian Holiday," a film about Quebec by Sid Dodson, will be shown Tuesday, Oct. 9, at 7:30 p.m. in Soreng Theatre as part of the Hult Center's World Adventure Film Series. Tickets are $5.50 at the Hult box office.
