

Spartans trip netters

By Robert Collias
Of the Emerald

The Oregon volleyball team was missing the killer instinct last Friday night at McArthur Court as the Ducks dropped a NorPac conference match to San Jose State University 17-15, 15-11, 14-16 and 15-9.

The Ducks, ranked 12th in the nation coming into last weekend's play, came back strong Saturday night to defeat the University of Santa Clara in three games 15-6, 15-9 and 15-6. The weekend split left Oregon at 4-1 in the NorPac conference and 16-7 overall.

Although the Ducks won Saturday, Oregon coach Chris Voelz was less than pleased with Friday night's result against the Spartans of San Jose State. The Ducks seemed to have many opportunities to take command of the match — only to see the SJSU continually take the wind out of Oregon's sails.

"The sad part was we never came out and said, 'We are going to take the lead,'" said Voelz of the SJSU loss.

That loss may come back to haunt the Ducks in the future. With the win, the Spartans are in sole possession of first place in the NorPac lead with a 7-0 record after beating Oregon State University Saturday. Oregon will be pressed to catch the Spartans in the standings.

Voelz didn't have any regrets as to how her team played against the 14th ranked SJSU team.

"I thought we played well, except we just couldn't take command," said Voelz. "San Jose played better defense than I've ever seen them play and we had a hard time adjusting to their experienced middle."

Voelz said Oregon middle blockers Laurie Krejcha and Laurie Hattemer had a hard time adjusting to the play of SJSU middle-hitter Felicia Schuller.

"We had to take a chance on a couple of occasions and we came up empty," said Voelz. "You can tell our youth in the middle. That isn't a knock, but they are just freshmen, and it is tough for freshmen in the middle."

Schuller was a big reason for the Ducks' troubles in the middle. Schuller had 19 kills, and she was extremely effective with a .485 hitting average.

SJSU coach Dick Montgomery gave credit to Schuller's effort against the Ducks.

"She is a real streak player," said Montgomery. "When she's in a streak she's just awesome."

Oregon received a couple of unexpected sterling performances against SJSU.

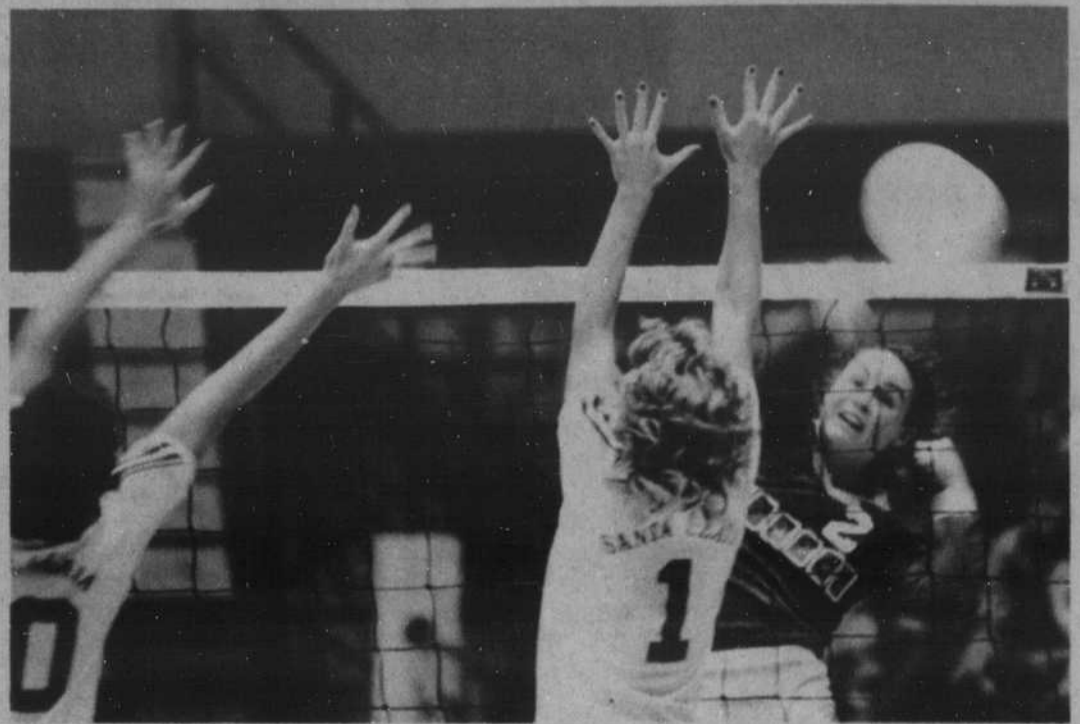

Photo by Steve Crowell

Shaunna Koenig tries for a kill as the Ducks buried the University of Santa Clara in three straight games Saturday night at McArthur Court.

Freshman Teri Kramer had 19 kills, and Cynthia Shepherd rejoined her teammates after being out a week with a broken finger.

"Kramer played her best match and Shepherd played exceptionally well for only two days of practice," said Voelz.

"Shepherd might have been a little rusty, but she adds so much to our offense."

The Ducks rebounded against Santa Clara with an easy three-game victory. All-America candidate Sue Harbour had 19 kills for the winning Ducks while Shepherd added another 18. The win moved the Ducks' record to 16-7 overall.

Men runners win, but Duck women lose

Despite rain and hail, Chris Hamilton managed to lead the Oregon men's cross country team to a win in the Tokatee Invitational meet Saturday in Blue River.

"It was a kind of miserable day to run," said Hamilton who crossed the finish line at 30:53.3. Hamilton's win paced Oregon's No. 1 team to 31 points while the Ducks' No. 2 team finished in third with 51 points.

Two of Oregon's top runners didn't have spectacular meets.

Mike Blackmore pulled up at the three mile mark and John Zishka, nursing a bad foot, decided not to run.

"It's a big change when you have to go without your best runners," said assistant men's coach John Gillespie.

Dan Nelson and Matt McGuirk finished 6th and 7th in times of 31:22.8 and 31:23.8.

"There wasn't as good a grouping as we'd like to see," said Gillespie. "We need to bring some of the other runners closer to the front."

While the men's team won, the Oregon women's team didn't have as much success.

The women's cross country team fell to the second-ranked Wisconsin Badgers Saturday in Madison, Wis.

Oregon, which went into the Wisconsin-Burger King Invitational rated number one in the nation, saw its hopes for an undefeated season closed out by the impressive performance of the host Badgers. Wisconsin easily took first place with a score of 77 to the Ducks' second-place 96 in the nine-team field.

Wisconsin's best two runners finished impressively: Katie Ishmael captured first place with a 16:29 clocking, while Cathy Branta finished in fourth place at 16:41.

Oregon's Kathy Hayes was the first Duck to cross the finish line, taking fifth place in 16:49. The next finisher for Oregon was junior Kim Roth who finished 17th with a time of 17:22.

Tigers win; take series

DETROIT (AP) — Game Five slipped away from pitcher Mark Thurmond. The World Series slipped away from San Diego.

"What happened out there speaks for itself," Thurmond said Sunday night after the Padres were beaten by Detroit 8-4 in the deciding game of the Series. "They just beat me up. There is not much you can say."

et al.

RALPH NADER speaking tonight on environmental effects of corporate America. Tickets are available at the EMU main desk. $1 for students and $2 for general public. Presented by ASUO, OSPIRG, SBA, and Cultural Forum.

OIL PAINT ARTIST Betty Field-Haley will be displaying her paintings this week at the Koinonia Center, 1414 Kincaid St.

B.S.U. MEETING today at 4:30 p.m. Room 215 Allen Hall. Bring old tests for test file.

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES ASSOCIATION will hold an organizational meeting today at 7 p.m. in the EMU International Lounge.

HOME NURSING COURSE today from 7-9 p.m. at the American Red Cross Office. Will run for nine weeks. AD CLUB MEETING: The second meeting of the year is today at 4 p.m. in Room 221 Allen Hall.

UNION OF CONCERNED SCIENTISTS teleconference presents "Breaking the Stalemate," the first satellite UCS teleconference to be brought to Eugene, today from 5-8 p.m. in Room 308 Forum Building, Lane Community College.

GTF GENERAL MEETING today at 5 p.m. in Room 260 Condon Hall. All GTFs welcome.

FOCUS YOUR EDUCATION workshops for undeclared majors starting this week. To sign up, call Career Planning and Placement at 686-3235.

SIGN UP AT 7:30 a.m. Wed. in Room 244 Hendricks Hall for the following recruiters:

Oct. 22 Golden Gate Univ. law school (For Grad School). Group

Meeting at 9 a.m. in Room 108 EMU.

Oct. 22 Moss Adams (For Staff Acct)

Oct. 22, 23 Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Company (For Audit, Tax, Advisory Serv/Private Bus)

Oct. 22 Washington State Univ. Graduate School. Group Meeting at 12:30 p.m. in Room 110 EMU.

Oct. 23 Ford, Black & Co., P.C. (For Accountant)

Oct. 23 Frederick & Nelson (For Mgmt Trainee)

Oct. 23 John H. Harland Co. (For Sales Associate)

Oct. 23, 24 Peace Corps. EMU Group Meeting Oct. 24 at noon in Century Room A EMU. Films Oct. 24 at 3:30 p.m. in Century Room A EMU; 7 p.m. in the EMU Forum Room; and Oct. 25 at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU Forum Room.

GRADUATE FELLOWSHIP FOR MINORITIES, 1985-86: CIC Minorities Fellowship will pay full tuition plus a stipend of at least $6,000. For complete information, call toll free 1-800-457-4420, or write CIC Minorities Fellowships Program, Kirkwood Hall 111, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47405.

PHILIP MORRIS OFFERS STUDENTS practical marketing experience. Morris invites students to research any of its non-tobacco products/operations and to submit a marketing/communications proposal that could succeed in today's competitive business world. Write to Competition Coordinator: Deirdre Waitt, Philip Morris Inc., 120 Park Ave., New York, N.Y., 10017, or call 1-212-880-4121.

APPLY NOW FOR NEW SCHOLARSHIPS. The Scholarship

Bank has announced 10 new scholarship programs that are currently accepting applications from college students. Interested students should send stamped, self-addressed envelopes to Scholarship Bank, 10100 Santa Monica 2600, Los Angeles, CA 90067.

TRUMAN SCHOLARSHIP AWARD covers expenses up to $5,000 per year for the junior and senior year and two years of graduate study. Must be a sophomore and have a "B" grade average to apply. For more information, stop by International Studies, Room 837 PLC.

Doonesbury

BY GARRY TRUDEAU

Cash

For Textbooks
Mon. - Fri.

Smith Family
Bookstore

768 E. 13th
Block From Campus

345-1651