

Move over Smurfs, Oregon has the 'Supreme Team'

By Allan Lazo
Of the Emerald

The Supreme Team Show. They are Oregon's latest football fan club, and without them, the Ducks would be short about half of their points this season.

The Supreme Team Show: four words for four Oregon players who aren't just whistling Dixie.

"The" is for 5-8 flanker Lew Barnes who has become the key big-play man for the Ducks this season.

"Supreme" is for 5-9 tailback Kevin McCall whose multiple talents have helped the Ducks to their 5-5 record this season.

"Team" is for 5-9 freshman James Harper who has shown great promise in Oregon's backfield.

And, the "Show" is for 5-8 tailback Tony Cherry who has quickly become one of the Ducks' game-breakers this past season.

"We're all under 5-9 and playing in the Pac-10 conference. We think that is kind of special, so we just made up a little group," said Cherry who was a red-shirt last year after transferring from Riverside City Junior College in California.

While Oregon has scored a total of 210 points this season, The Supreme Team Show has tallied 15 touchdowns, including Barnes' team-high seven. McCall has added five touchdowns and Cherry another three.

"We have proven that you don't have to be big to play," says McCall. "Or 6-6, 250-pounds to have fun playing football," interjects Harper.

After an impressive spring workout, Cherry moved to second on the depth chart behind McCall at tailback. The moved has paid off for Oregon coach Rich Brooks.

On the season, Cherry has gained 456 yards on 79 carries for a 5.8 yard average, just 24 yards behind McCall who leads the team in rushing with 480.

But, Cherry's real forte lies in his help with the special teams where he has been ranked in the top ten nationally in kickoff returns. Cherry has returned 28 kickoffs for 725 yards, averaging 25.9 yards per return.

McCall, a senior, has been Oregon's bread and butter man. He has started all but one game this year.

McCall seems to have been tailor-made for Oregon's offense. He is tied with Barnes atop the receiving list with 36 receptions going into this Saturday's season finale with Oregon State University at Corvallis.

While Oregon quarterback Chris Miller has gone to his backs more often, Barnes has continued to be the excitement of the Duck offense.

Last season, Barnes had 30 receptions for 625 yards and five touchdowns. But this year, Barnes has improved on that total with 36 receptions for 623 yards, averaging just over 17 yards per catch.

Barnes is only three TD receptions away from Bobby Moore's single-season school record of ten touchdown receptions. But "sweet" Lew has only the Civil War contest left to catch Moore after he missed the Arizona State University game last week because of a sprained knee.

"We're a pretty exciting bunch of guys," says Barnes.

While the three stars of The Supreme Team Show continue to shine with big plays for Oregon, freshman Harper has taken a different perspective.

Harper, a redshirt last season, has gained only 38 yards on nine carries but is best seen as an investment in the future for the Ducks.
