

The University Theatre's 1985 "Second Season" begins tonight at 8 p.m. with "Absurd Person Singular," a comedy by award-winning British playwright Alan Ayckbourne.

The play, directed by graduate student

Janice Joyce, explores the turmoil of six middle-class people caught between the conflicting goals of success and domestic tranquility.

For tickets and information, call the box office at 686-4191.

Seminar to explore men and masculinity

A conference on "Men and Masculinity" will be held at the University Friday through Sunday.

"Masculinity will be defined, questioned, explored and illuminated," says Martin Acker, conference organizer and professor of counseling psychology.

Among the speakers at the conference will be Joseph Fleck, author of "Men and Masculinity," Jed Diamond, author of "Inside Out, Becoming My Own Man," and Lester Kirkendahl, Oregon State University professor emeritus.

Topics to be covered include men and power, its uses and abuses; men relating to men, their roles and relationships; and men and sexuality, male roles and perceptions. "Men," a multi-media presentation, is scheduled for Saturday at 8 p.m. in the EMU Ballroom.

The conference is sponsored by the College of Education, Division of Counseling and Educational Psychology, and the Continuation Center. One hour of academic credit is available.

Cost is $55 for University faculty, $35 for students and $75 for others. The conference will be held in the EMU and Gerlinger Hall.

For details, call Acker at 686-5501 or Paul Katz at 686-4231.

Economist to open seminar

John Wilson, chief economist for the Bank of America, will give the keynote address at the Economic Outlook Seminar to be held at the Black Angus Restaurant Friday.

Wilson will also speak on the "The Global Economy: Economic Stagnation or Growth Renaissance" in Room 101, EMU today at 3:30 p.m.

Wilson has taught at Yale and other universities, has been an adviser for several government agencies, and is the author of "The Power Economy: A Global Search for an Economy that Works."

The seminar, sponsored by the University economics department, will be held from 3-5 p.m. with a social hour following.

Wilson's speech will be followed by a panel discussion with John Mitchell, editor of Oregon Business Barometer; Les Anderson, former mayor of Eugene; and University economics Prof. Randall Eberts. Economics Prof. Barry Siegel will moderate.

Tickets for the seminar are $10 and will be available at the door.

BUDGET SOAKS

Take a relaxing soak and save on afternoon rates at Onsen. Great after workouts, and for study breaks—especially between exams! $7 per hour for two people. Reservation times noon-5:15 p.m.

No alcohol or glass containers permitted on the premises.

1883 Garden Ave. (off Franklin) 345-9048

IBM WORD PROCESSOR RENTAL

860 E. 13th

OPEN 7 DAYS

344-7894

emu Breezeway Cafe

WARM UP at the Breezeway Cafe

for students on their way!

Fresh-brewed gourmet coffee and a wide selection of pastries await you each morning.

Open: 8am to 5pm; Mon.-Fri.

The Perfect Way To Start Your Day!

January's Jumpin' with Duck Basketball

Women's Basketball

Friday, Jan. 18th

UO vs. Washington State

Saturday, Jan. 19th

UO vs. University of Washington

Wednesday, Jan. 30th

UO vs. Portland State
Family Night - $5.00
2 adults, 3 children

Women's games begin at 7:30 p.m. at Mac Court

$1.00 UO Students
$3.00 General Admission

Welcome the Men's Basketball team back after a long road trip.

Thursday, Jan. 24th

UO vs. Arizona State

Saturday, Jan. 26

UO vs. Arizona

UO 1984 NCAA Track Champions to be honored at half-time.

Men's games start at 7:35 p.m. at Mac Court

$3.00 UO Student • $4.00 High School Students
$6.00 General Admission • $10.00 Reserved