Hult programs begin

New York's Paul Taylor Dance Company will kick off the Hult Center's "Super Season Series" Jan. 22 at 8 p.m. in the Silva Concert Hall.

Other performances in the four-show series will include French pianists Katia and Marielle Labèque on March 13, Japan's Kodo Demon Drummers and Dancers of Sado on Mar. 15 and Belgium's 24-voice Collegium Vocale on April 5.

Tickets for the series are available at the Hult Center's box office — $22 for four shows or $18 for three.

Hailed by the New York Post as "one of the great dance companies of our time," the Paul Taylor Dance Company has performed in more than 300 U.S. cities and 53 nations. Single tickets for the modern dance show range in price from $5 to $14.50 and are available at all Hult Center outlets.

French sisters Katia and Marielle Labèque perform selections from Brahms, Stravinsky, Ravel and Gershwin's "American in Paris" on March 13. The Labèques' recordings have become international bestsellers. They have appeared with the Berlin Radio Symphony, the Los Angeles Philharmonic, the Orchestre de Paris and London's Royal Philharmonic.

Single tickets for this show are $8.50, $6.50 and $4.

The Kodo Demon Drummers and Dancers of Sado have gained international recognition for their mastery of ancient Japanese instruments and dances. Prices for single tickets range from $4 to $10.50.

Belgium's Collegium Vocale is reputed to be one of Europe's most respected chamber ensembles. Tickets for the Eugene stop on the group's first U.S. tour are priced from $4.50 to $8.50.
