*****
Special thanks and apologies to those folks that had to cram in last week! And a very special thank you to the Excelsior Cafe for helping us bring the Director's Showcase in the first place.

Immoral TALES
French director Walerian Borowlyzk presents several short stories within an historical framework to examine sexuality through the ages. Bawdy, yet sensual, and highly acclaimed for its exquisite visual quality and subtle use of colors, it is also reputed to be the first film to use erotic material to create a serious and beautiful artistic achievement.
*****
SUNDAY
7 & 9 pm
180 PLC
ALFRED HITCHCOCK'S
REAR WINDOW
Jimmy Stewart plays a globe-hopping photojournalist who is temporarily confined to a wheelchair.
With nothing else to do, he begins watching the goings-on outside the bay window of his high-rise apartment. What he sees (or believes he sees) sets the stage for what is unquestionably one of Hitchcock's best achievements in suspenseful filmmaking.
