Soviet damns Star Wars

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Pres. Konstantin Chernenko, in a direct challenge to President Ronald Reagan, condemned the U.S. "Star Wars" program Thursday as an "aggressive concept" designed to achieve U.S. military superiority over the Soviet Union.

In an interview with Cable News Network, the Soviet leader said "to put it simply, the aim is to acquire a capability to deliver a nuclear strike counting on impunity."

Chernenko said the U.S.-Soviet negotiations set to resume on March 12 could solve the problems of nuclear weapons, but only if steps are taken to prevent the militarization of outer space.

Otherwise, Chernenko said, the Strategic Defense Initiative "would become a catalyst of an uncontrolled arms race in all directions."

The Soviet leader made the comments in written replies to questions submitted by Stuart Loory, CNN's Moscow bureau chief.

Reagan has defended the program, known popularly as Star Wars, as a research venture designed to determine whether the United States could be shielded with futuristic technology from attacking missiles.

Shutdown hearing called

ALBANY (AP) — A special legislative hearing will be held Monday at the state Capitol in Salem to consider the closures of Champion International's Lebanon mill and United Foods' frozen food processing plant in Albany, a state senator said Thursday.

Champion on Tuesday announced the closure of its Lebanon plywood mill, throwing about 585 people out of work. United Foods plans to close its Albany plant in March, eliminating about 100 full-time jobs and 280 seasonal part-time jobs.

Reversal sought for video decree

SALEM (AP) — The Oregon Supreme Court was asked Thursday to overturn a lower court ruling that barred two Portland television stations from broadcasting videotaped testimony given by Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh.

The issue goes beyond the civil trial last year involving the controversial Indian guru.

The state's highest court has to decide for the first time whether videotaped testimony, rather than a written transcript of witnesses' courtroom statements, becomes a public record once it's played in court.

KOIN-TV and Fisher Broadcasting, owner of KATU-TV, sued Multnomah County Circuit Judge Clifford Olsen after he refused to let the stations copy the taped interview with Rajneesh.
