GRADUATE TEACHING FELLOWSHIP IN WOMEN'S STUDIES

The Women's Studies Program at the University of Oregon is seeking applications for two graduate assistantships for the academic year, 1985-86. Salary is determined by the G.T.F. bargaining contract, but will probably range from $4500 to $6000. The G.T.F. contract mandates different salary ranges dependent on experiences and academic level. Fellowships include a waiver of tuition.

All applicants must have been admitted to the Graduate School of the University of Oregon. Applications must be filed at the Women's Studies Office, 636 PLC, by 4:00 p.m. on Friday, March 29. Announcement of appointments will be made on Monday, April 15.

DUTIES: If knowledgeable about Women's Studies introductory courses, to teach two Introduction to Women's Studies during the fall, winter or spring quarters. If inexperienced in this area, successful applicants will also be asked to assist in the introductory course during the fall quarter.

Qualifications:

- 1) Background in Women's Studies.
- 2) Academic excellence and/or important work experience in women's studies.
- 3) Experience in group process.
- 4) Strong interdisciplinary background.
- 5) Interest in teaching Women's Studies.
- 6) Admissions to a graduate program at the University of Oregon.

Application forms can be obtained by writing Women's Studies, 636 PLC, University of Oregon, Eugene, OR 97403, or by calling 503-686-5529. Applications must include transcripts, at least two letters of recommendation, a statement by the candidate outlining interests, qualifications, and future goals in Women's Studies, and rough outline of topics and readings the candidate would cover in an introductory course. THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON IS AN AFFIRMATIVE ACTION AND EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER 4349-3-4

THE GODS MUST BE CRAZY

A wonderfully funny and wistful adventure begins when a coke bottle falls into an idyllic tribe of Kalahari bushmen and causes strife. When Xi, their gentle chief, decides to take the evil object to the end of the earth and throw it off, he runs headlong into a herd of "civilized" people, including a bumbling microbiologist, an idealistic school teacher and a band of card-playing communist revolutionaries. It's a glorious blend of slapstick humor, romance, spy political commentary and astute anthropology. -S.F. Chronicle

FRI-SAT 7:15 & 9:35
SUN-THURS 6:25 & 8:45
Miser Monday *2.50

This film was made by an independent production company (based in South Africa) whose only sin is working in a country ruled by an authoritarian regime that most of us find very repugnant. Jamie Uys, the producer/director/writer is in NO WAY PRO-PARTHEID. The film was made as tribute to the Kalahari peoples. If you choose to deny yourself the experience of this unique motion picture it's your loss. - But don't pretend that by doing so you are in any way fighting Apartheid.

A WAY TO SAY THANKS TO YOUR PROFESSOR

Do you have a professor who inspires you to dedicate yourself to your studies? Who makes you think and want to learn? Count your blessings and nominate this person for either a 1985 Ersted or a Burlington-Northern distinguished teaching award. Two Ersted awards and three Burlington-Northern awards will be made at June Commencement. It only takes a moment but it makes a great difference to the professor. It says, "Keep up the good work!" Pick up nomination forms at the ASUO office, EMU office, Library, Student Services, or Provost's office. The deadline is Friday, March 15. 4356-3-12
