

Tennis squads start seasons

The Oregon men's tennis team scored its first victory of the season with a win over Eastern Washington Friday at home, but found things tougher Saturday as the University of Washington whipped the Ducks, 9-0 Saturday on the 15th Street Courts.

The Oregon women's team found life on the road unpleasant early as they lost their first two over the weekend to Puget Sound and Pacific Lutheran, but whipped Seattle University Sunday to end the trip on a positive note.

The men scored a 6-3 victory over Eastern Washington as Wade Judy scored a singles victory over Roy Morca, 7-5, 6-4 and then teamed with Murphy Dysart in a doubles win to push the Ducks to victory.

Saturday, the Huskies from Washington dominated the Ducks, 9-0 as Oregon could not win a single set in either singles or doubles play.

Up in Tacoma, Wash. the women lost a close decision to Puget Sound, 5-4. Liz O'Donnell, Kim Kalapus and Tracy Hinchcliffe posted victories in singles action, but it wasn't enough to get the win on the road.

The Duck women lost another close decision on Saturday to Pacific Lutheran, 5-4 as the Lutes collected three wins in the singles play and two in the doubles matches. O'Donnell, Kalapus and Hinchcliffe again paced the Ducks with victories.

On Sunday morning, the Duck women concluded the trip with a win over Seattle, 6-3 in Tacoma.

Oregon golfers take third in tournament

Led by sophomore Rob Huff, the Oregon golf team snagged a share of third place in the Rancho Murieta Invitational golf tournament Friday in Sacramento, Calif.

The Ducks finished with a 54-hole total of 921, which tied them for third place with Nevada-Reno. Stanford University won the tournament with a stroke total of 902, and San Jose State University finished second with a 906 total, followed by Oregon and Nevada-Reno.

Oregon also received a strong showing from George Daves, who shot a 54-hole total of 228. John DeLong was next in for the Ducks with a 230, followed by Tim Scott (239) and Tony Joyner (249).

Huff shot a 224, which was good enough for third place individual honors in the tournament. Huff shot rounds of 73 and 78 to go with his 73 on Thursday to collect the third place tie with SJSU's Larry Silveira.

The Ducks' next meet is Friday as they participate in the Northern California-Pepsi Intercollegiate in Stockton, Calif. The University of the Pacific will be the host team of the meet that concludes on Saturday.

Bruins

Butler's pass. Butler fouled Harper, who hit both foul shots to close the gap to two, 69-67.

On the next UCLA inbounds, the Bruins called time out twice. The Ducks played an excellent denial-defense, which forced UCLA's hand. Monson felt the ball should have been Oregon's after the second Bruin timeout was called.

"I think the count was more than three with the last timeout," Monson said as the boisterous partisan Oregon crowd and the momentum was in the Ducks' favor.

Finally, UCLA inbounded the ball. Bruin guard Nigel Miguel was fouled and given a two-shot foul. With the Mac Court crowd yelling encouragement for a miss at a fever pitch, Miguel bricked both free throws. Oregon got the ball back with a chance to tie and a possible overtime opportunity.

Harper took the ball down the left side into the corner. With two Bruins on him, the 6-2 senior guard shot a difficult 12-footer that bounced off the rim. UCLA's Corey Gaines snared the rebound and was fouled with 12 seconds left. Gaines hit both shots on a one-and-one attempt to make it 71-67 and give UCLA the hard-fought win.

"I felt I got fouled (on the arm)," Harper said of his shot. "I guess the referee wasn't in position to make the call."

Trapp paced the Ducks with 16 points, while Harper and Rasmussen each added 14. UCLA's Reggie Miller knocked down a game-high 17 points for the Bruins, who tied for third place in the league with a 12-6 Pac-10 mark. However, UCLA had to settle for the National Invitation Tournament and not the NAAs.

For the Ducks it was a year that almost was, but things never seemed to bounce their way as freshman guard Rick Osborn summed it up.

"We couldn't get any breaks," Osborn said.

Breakers lose Gold-en chance, 29-17

DENVER (AP) — Vince Evans threw for a touchdown and ran for another in the fourth quarter Sunday to lead the Denver Gold to a 29-17 United States Football League victory over the Portland Breakers.

Evans scored with less than two minutes to go on a one-yard quarterback sneak to provide the Gold with the cushion needed to bring the team's record to 2-1.

The game was played before a sparse crowd of 17,790, which was well below expectations.

It was the first home game for the Gold, giving Denver fans their first opportunity to see the run-and-shoot offense of Coach Mouse Davis.

Evans, acquired specifically to run the pass-happy Davis offense, hit Kelley Johnson with a 27-yard scoring strike early in the fourth quarter to give the Gold a 23-10 lead. But the Breakers kept their hand in the game by blocking Brian Speelman's extra point attempt, then scoring on the next series to close the gap to 23-17.

Tight end Dan Ross made a sensational catch of Doug Woodward's pass for the Breakers' 37-yard touchdown.

But any chance of coming back was snuffed when Denver linebacker Stan Blinka made a diving interception off a Woodward pass and Evans moved the Gold to the clinching score.
