THE GODS MUST BE CRAZY
A wonderfully funny and wistful adventure begins when a coke bottle falls into an idyllic tribe of Kalahari bushmen and causes strife. When Xi, their gentle chief, decides to take the evil object to the end of the earth and throw it off, he runs headlong into a herd of "civilized" people, including a bumbling microbiologist, an idealistic school teacher and a band of card-playing communist revolutionaries. It's a glorious blend of slapstick humor, romance, sly political commentary and astute anthropology.

Not Coercive Utopianism
This film was made by an independent production company (based in South Africa) whose only sin is working in a country ruled by an authoritarian regime that most of us find very repugnant. Jamie Uys, the producer/director/writer is in NO WAY PRO-APARTHEID. The film was made as tribute to the Kalahari peoples. If you choose to deny yourself the experience of this unique motion picture it's your loss. But don't pretend that by doing so you are in any way fighting Apartheid.

CARMEN
Directed by Carlos Saura. Beautiful Laura del Sol plays Carmen, the fiery, fickle and free-spirited temptress whose irresistible appeal ignites men's passions, jealousies, and violent natures. Carmen radiates with exhilarating and betty choreographed dance sequences as it weaves its erotic tale of the dangers of obsession and desire.
"Carmen soars... a timeless story becomes more exciting than ever"

BLOOD OF THE CONDOR
Banned in Bolivia until violent protest forced its release, Blood of the Condor is one of the most controversial and highly acclaimed films ever produced in Latin America. A fascinating dramatization of a 1969 U.S.-imposed population control program that sterilized Quechua Indian women without their knowledge or consent, the film provides an accurate reflection of the predominant attitude of Latin Americans toward U.S. "Aid" programs.

370 AS WE CONTINUE OUR BOYCOTT OF THE GODS MUST BE CRAZY
The Anti-apartheid Coalition of Eugene would like to thank the 370 people who have chosen not to cross the picket line and those who have left the movie to join our picket. We are grateful to the 90 people who have made up the picket for the last two weeks. And we also thank those people who have joined us in friendly dialogue about why we have organized an informational picket of this South African film. Our reasons for the picket continue to be:
1) South African investors back the film.
2) An American company, 20th Century Fox, distributes the film and we urge divestment of all American interest in South Africa.
3) The money paid at the box office goes to support the economy of South Africa and its racist system of apartheid. As we continue our divestment work in the coming weeks we encourage those who support our efforts to join us. 3-14
