23-5/4. Later, Luttrell struck back with a wind-aided 49-4 1/2 win in the triple jump, just ahead of Agu (49-1).

In the vertical jumps, Todd Post (6-10 3/4), Chris Harper (6-10 3/4) and Keith Washington (6-8 3/4, tie for third) completed a near sweep in the high jump. NCAA runner-up Kory Tarpenning made his outdoor debut in the pole vault with a second place 17-4 1/4.

"I felt a little rusty for my first outdoor meet," said Tarpenning, who was coming off arthroscopic knee surgery to repair an injury he suffered in mid-February.

The only disappointment for the Ducks may have been the 4x100-meter relay team where Oregon failed to complete a successful pass in the first leg. But after Matt McGuirk's win in the 3,000-meter steeplechase (8:54.7) along with Will Kimball's third (9:02.7), the Ducks had opened up a 45 1/2-13 1/2 lead after the first seven events.

In the other distance races, Mike Blackmore (3:49.48) and Knut Hegvold (3:51.61) finished one-two in the 1,500-meters, while Dub Meyers won the 800-meters in 1:49.84, ahead of teammate Willy Rossow (1:52.92), who finished in third.

"The 5,000 was a good race. We thought we were going to be a shoo-in for one-two and maybe even a sweep, then they held out one of their two outstanding steeplechasers, who pushed our two guys to the limit," Dellinger said. "I was pleased that Chris Hamilton (14:07.25) and John Zishka (14:07.75) were able to go one-two."

In the hurdles, Rod Green (14.8), Peter Knudsen (15.2)

Making his season debut, Brian Crouser threw the javelin 286-0, his third best throw ever, as the Ducks won their season-opening dual meet.

and Randy Huserick (15.4) swept the 110-meter high hurdles, while Knudsen (54.6) and Huserick (56.37) also captured additional second and third places in the 400-meter hurdles.

Freshman John Frazier captured a second in the 100-meters at 11.15 and a third in the 200. In the 400, Mark Harris came back to tie for first place with Robin Johnson of Fresno State at 48.43.

Oregon collects win in Hawaii

The Oregon's women's softball team, aided by pitcher Susan Voeller's two-hitter, posted an easy 2-0 victory Sunday against Chapman College in the Ducks' final game of the Hawaii Softball Tournament at Manoa, Hawaii this weekend.

Voeller struck out three hitters and her teammates backed her with six hits — triple the Ducks' combined total in the first two tournament games — as Oregon finished the tournament with a 1-2 record. Shortstop Jackie Coburn hit a double, and Kim Heddinger ripped a triple to pace the Ducks.

Oregon dropped two games Saturday to start the tourney. In the first, Fresno State University held the Ducks to one hit, while pounding out nine in a 5-1 victory. Voeller, coming back from a pulled hamstring, started the contest and was relieved by Sony Schroeder. In the second game, Oregon forced top-ranked UCLA to go eight innings before succumbing, 1-0. The Ducks again managed only one hit, but Cindy Garrett and Schroeder combined to hold the Bruins to four hits.

Oregon next travels to Portland, where it will take on Portland State University Thursday at 2:30 p.m. Then, on Friday and Saturday, the Ducks travel to Forest Grove for the Pacific University Tournament.

The Oregon golf team finished in 12th place in the two-day Pepsi-Fresno State Classic men's golf tournament held Friday and Saturday in Fresno, Calif.

The Ducks were eighth after the first two rounds but finished with a two-day total of 1,137. George Daves turned in Oregon's best score, a 224, 24 strokes behind the leader, while John DeLong finished with a 226.

The Oregon men's tennis team concluded its trip through California with only one win in three matches as they downed Butte College with a 9-0 victory Sunday in California.

The doubles team of Murphy Dysart and Judy along with Wiley Smith went 3-0 on the trip that included a 7-2 loss to the University of California-Santa Cruz Friday. The Ducks also lost to the Orinda Country Club, 6-5 on Saturday.

Oregon moved to 7-4 for the season and will return home for a match Thursday against the University of Portland at Portland.

The Duck women's tennis team went 3-0 over the break in California and will be on the 15th Street Courts on Tuesday for a match against Southern Oregon State College. The match will played on the outside courts if weather permits.
