Duck golf team finishes fourth

In the Portland State Invitational, the Oregon golf team finished in fourth place with its "second squad" Monday at the Lewis River Golf Course in Woodland, Wash.

Oregon shot a 618 total in the weather-shortened tournament that was decreased from the originally scheduled 54 holes to 36 because of snow on the Rippling River Golf Course.

Boise State won the tournament with 600 stroke-total. BSU was followed by Portland State University (608), Oregon State University (611) and Oregon. The Ducks finished ahead of the eight NCAA Division II schools participating in the event.

The Ducks' top golfer was Croy Cochran, who shot a 142 total for two days. Cochran also took medalist honors over Danny Moore of Boise State University (144).

Cochran, a freshman from Kent, Wash., shot a one-under 70 on the final day of play.

Besides Cochran, the Ducks received some sub-par performances. Steve Krieger had Oregon's next lowest score of 158.

Oregon's first team was not at the tournament. The first team is resting for the Pacific-10 Conference Championships in Walla Walla, Wash., on April 29-May 1.

The University of Idaho gave the Oregon men's tennis team a rough time Sunday as the Vandals whipped the Ducks, 7-2 at the Pacific Northwest Tennis Championships in Seattle Sunday.

Oregon's Dave Smith and Chris Brilhante were the only Ducks victorious against the Vandals. Smith defeated Guillermo Alvarea, 6-2, 6-4. Brilhante took care of Nate Jones in a tight contest, 7-6, 7-6, but Oregon lost the remaining four singles matches and three doubles encounters.

The Ducks go back into action against Linfield College today at 3 in McMinnville.

Bill Nugent, a former All-

American at Oregon, won the 149.5-pound championship at the U.S.A. National Open Freestyle Tournament last weekend in Lock Haven, Pa.

Nugent defeated 1984 Olympic bronze medalist Jim Martinez, 6-5, to win the title. Nugent was voted the Outstanding Wrestler Award for his efforts.

Oregon freshman wrestler Glenn Jarrett finished in fifth in the National Espiors Freestyle Championships also in Lock Haven.

Jarrett, the 1985 Pacific-10 Conference 126-pound champion, whipped Jeff Gibbons of Iowa State at 136.5 pounds in the 20 and under division.

Blazers hope to corral Mavericks

PORTLAND (AP) — The Portland Trail Blazers would seem to have things going their way as they return home for their next two National Basketball Association playoff games against the Dallas Mavericks.

Portland has won 11 in a row — and 17 of its last 18 games — in the friendly environment of Memorial Coliseum.

But Blazer coach Jack Ramsay says his team is in trouble if it takes the home games Tuesday and Thursday nights for granted.

"Dallas is a very good road team," Ramsay says. "At the end of the season, they were better on the road than they were at home. If we assume we have an advantage here, we could be in real trouble."

The Blazers and Mavericks each won wild contests in Dallas, squaring the best-of-five first-round series at one game apiece.

ATTENTION

The proposed replacement for Section 6.10 of measure No. 5, which was omitted from the April 17th Voters Guide, should read as follows: The ASUO recommended incidental fee assessment for each of the following: (1) combined ASUO and EMU programs, and (2) the Athletic Department, shall not exceed a 7% increase over the previous year's student incidental fee assessment, unless individually approved by an initiative or referendum held under Section 12 of this Constitution. Despite the method through which the special election is called, the proponent shall specify the exact amounts in both percentage and dollars by which the 7% assessment limitation will be exceeded.

LISTEN.

WE THINK YOU SHOULD KNOW.

Every day you pick up your daily campus newspaper and read its interesting articles and cut out the many money saving coupons. But, did you know you get all these values for the low cost of 3.23 cents per day?

That amounts to only $1.79 per term in incidental fees.

We know you would like to know the facts before April 24-25. On these days there will be a campus-wide vote concerning the Emerald's subscription policy. At this time we will ask you to approve a 20 cent per term increase.

Your YES VOTE gives you a direct voice toward the way in which the Emerald's subscription is financed.
