Israeli celebration planned

An Israeli street fair will transform a portion of Alder Street into a carnival of music, dancing, food, crafts and games Sunday. The fair celebrates Israel's 37th birthday and is sponsored by the Jewish Student Union/Hillel and The Bayit, a cooperative for students interested in learning about Judaism.

Members of Shivtei Shalom Moshav (a Jewish cooperative near Dorena Lake) and Temple Beth Israel, and Saturday Market merchants will be host some of the booths at the fair. Local Israeli folk dancers and singers also will bring the Israeli culture to The Bayit at 2266 Alder St. Field day games for children will run through the day.

The fair lasts from 12 to 5 p.m. and is free to the public.

Today the JSU will have an information table from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the EMU lobby.

Below is a list of scheduled activities for Sunday:

- 1 p.m.: Pop band.
- 2:30 p.m.: Silent period for Reagan's visit to Bitburg.
- 2:40 p.m.: Birthday-cake candle lighting.
- 3 p.m.: Israeli music by Ki Tov Singers.

For further information, call JSU at 686-4366 or The Bayit at 485-2851.

Juice bar celebrates birthday

Genesis Juice Bar is throwing a birthday party to celebrate eight years of successful cooperative business. The party will be held at 8 p.m. tonight at the Wesley Center, 1236 Kincaid St.

Live music will be provided by Single Mary, Avalon, and Stick Against Stone. Admission is $2.

Genesis Juice Bar members work at a variety of jobs within the company and achieve full membership after paying a $500 membership fee.

The company makes about 400 gallons of apple and apple-blend juices each week as well as carrot, honey-lemon and other juices.
