NOTABLES

The 9th Annual No Nukes Ball featuring Johnny and the Distractions, the Cashiers and On The Edge falls this year on May 12, Mother's Day. Food, fun and frolic for children of all ages with help from Rob and Laurie, the Eugene Peace Choir, "Nuke Busters" with Solala Towler, Dr. Atomic's Amazing Medicine Show, Sweetgrass and Don Skinner. Admission is $4 to $6 on a sliding scale and the event begins at 6 p.m. Childcare will be available beginning at 8 p.m.

"Resistance! Love in a Better Time," dance that reflects and challenges the social movements of today, will be performed tonight and Saturday by the Wildflower Dance Brigade at 8 p.m. at the W.O.W. Hall. Tickets are $5 in advance and $6 on the day of the show. All ages are welcome and adult refreshments will be available with I.D.

"A Midsummer Night's Sex Comedy," Woody Allen's whimsical romp through a series of "musical pairs," shows tonight at 7:30 and 9:30 in Room 180 PLC. As always $2 adults.

The Red Rodney and Ira Sullivan Quintet comes to the Hult Center's Soreng Hall on Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $10, $8.50 and $6 at the Hult Box office.
