FITZ-CARRALDO

Brian Sweeney Fitzgerald Fitzcarraldo has a preposterous dream: to build an opera house in a desolate, untamed rain forest in South America and invite the great Caruso to sing there. Klaus Kinski plays Fitzcarraldo, opera lover and wild-eyed dreamer. Director Werner Herzog (Nosferatu the Vampire) has created a remarkable film of epic proportions, filmed entirely on location in the Amazon jungles of Peru. Herzog and his crew dragged an actual steamship up a steep mountainside! In Fitzcarraldo, Herzog has created a tribute to life's mad dreamers.

AGUIRRE THE WRATH OF GOD

"This is a splendid and haunting work. The film is incredibly rich and lush looking. Herzog is a poet who constantly surprises us with unexpected juxtapositions."
— Vincent Canby, The New York Times.

Klaus Kinski delivers a magnificent performance as Don Lope de Aguirre, a power-driven lunatic leading a party of 16th-Century Spanish conquistadors in the Amazon. They never return.
