

Brathwaite meet set for Saturday night

A dozen Olympians and athletes from nine countries will be the main attractions in the Chris Brathwaite Memorial track meet this Saturday evening at Hayward Field.

The meet will honor former University runner and Trinidad Olympic team member Chris Brathwaite, who was shot and killed by a sniper while jogging near Autzen Stadium on Nov. 12.

Saturday's memorial meet, being organized by Oregon International Athletics Team, will start at 7:05 p.m. with the hammer. The first track event will start at 7:30 p.m. with the men's 3,000-meters.

The Brathwaite Memorial is the first major track-and-field meet to be held at night at Hayward. The Oregon Track Club masters program donated the lights, allowing the night setup.

There will be nine men's and six women's events. On the women's side, the 3,000-meters will feature Oregon All-American Kathy Hayes.

Hayes recently set the collegiate record in the 5,000-meters in the Oregon Pepsi Relays at Hayward on May 4. Hayes will run in the special 3,000 event against Cindy Bremser, who has run the fastest 1,500-meters in the country this year. The Hayes-Bremser match-up will take place at 9:45 p.m. and will be the closing event of the night.

A special memorial will be held in Brathwaite's honor at 8:10 p.m. and will include a presentation to the former runner's widow and son. The meet organizers will leave a lane open in the 100- and 200-meter races in Brathwaite's honor.

Those sprint races feature Cliff Wiley, formerly ranked the No. 1 400-meter runner in the world. Wiley is joined by Jamaica's Colin Bradford, Fresno State University's Jeremiah Wheeler, Russell Paris (a teammate of Brathwaite on the Trinidad Olympic team) and Oregon high-school sensation Gus Envela from McKay High School in Salem.

Envela competed in the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles for the Ecuatorial New Guinea, and he will be joined by several other prominent track-and-field stars.

Ranza Clark, a former Oregon runner and gold medalist at the Pan-American Games, will be entered in the women's 800-meters.

Tickets for the meet are $5 reserved, $4 general admission and $3 for students and seniors. The tickets can be purchased at the University ticket office or at Hayward Field.

Kenny Moore's book "Best Efforts" will be distributed to the first 500 purchasers. Moore is a Sports Illustrated writer and former Oregon runner.

Norquist three behind

PORTLAND (AP) — Brent Murray, a 30-year-old assistant pro from Canby, shot an even-par 70 Monday in the second round and took a one-stroke lead after 36 holes of the $45,000 Al C. Giusti Memorial golf tournament at Columbia-Edgewater Country Club.

Oregon golfer Gerry Norquist shot a 2-over-par 72 to stay three shots off Murray. Norquist, at 142, is one stroke behind Rick Garber for low amateur honors in the tournament.
