"I feel I can relate to them better," she added.

During winter term the team plays indoor soccer, a fast-paced and exciting game. Instead of having 11 players on the field like outdoor soccer, only five to six are on the field at one time, Smetana said.

"It is a whole different style of play," she added.

The team competed in three indoor tournaments last year and took a first, second and fifth place.

The team is looking for new players for the upcoming fall season to fill both offensive and defensive positions, Kats said.

While she prefers players with some experience, anyone is welcome to try out for the team and attend practices.

"I was awful when I first started, but I didn't want to quit," Rostron said. She stayed with it, and both she and Kats encourage newcomers to do the same.

For more information on joining the team call Rostron at 343-4708 or Kats at 485-4634.
