Group calls for tree-cutting halt

University geography senior David Rusk, a member of the "Eugene Coalition for Old Growth," is camping out in a teepee on the front steps of the Federal Building in Eugene until Thursday, protesting the cutting of old growth trees in national forests.

Rusk and the coalition are calling for a moratorium on all old growth cutting, specifically in the Santiam Cathedral Forest.

Food distribution today

Students for a Progressive Agenda and the Student Food Assistance Program are sponsoring a free food distribution today in EMU Rooms 110 and 111. Cheese and flour will be available to low-income students beginning at 9 a.m. and ending at 4 p.m. or when supplies are gone.

Students in one-person households are eligible if their monthly incomes do not exceed $569. Persons in households of two or more are eligible if their incomes do not exceed $195 per individual above the base rate.

Interested persons should bring identification, such as a post-marked letter or envelope, to prove residence. Those living in prepaid, communal eating situations, including fraternities, sororities, cooperatives or dormitories, are not eligible to receive food.
