

Handel birthday concert slated

This year marks the 300th anniversary of composer George Handel's birth, and the Oregon Mozart Players will mark the occasion and conclude their 1984-85 season with a concert devoted entirely to Handel's music Saturday at 8:30 p.m. in the Hult Center's Soren Theatre.

The players will perform under the direction of Robert Hurwitz, University music professor. The concert will feature soloists Cherine Bauer, soprano; Kenneth Jones, tenor and music school graduate teaching fellow; and the Eugene Chamber Singers, under the direction of James Miller, for the "Ode for Saint Cecilia's Day."

Composed in 1739 on a text by John Dryden, the work honors the Roman martyr Cecilia who became the patron saint of music in the 14th or 15th century and whose feast day is November 22. The score contains some of Handel's most exciting choral and solo writing and reminds the listener of "Messiah," which the composer completed two years later.

The program will open with a suite from one of Handel's best-loved works, the "Water Music." The entire "Water Music" is a set of 21 pieces, many of which were written between 1715 and 1720.

Tickets for the concert, priced at $8.50, $6.50 and $6, are available from the Hult Center box office. Call 687-5000 for information or reservations.
