

Boston not Worthy of win

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — James Worthy scored all 29 of his points in the second and third periods as the Los Angeles Lakers, virtually unbeatable at home for three months, beat the Boston Celtics 136-111 Sunday for a 2-1 lead in the National Basketball Association championship series.

The Lakers, winners of 25 of 26 games at the Inglewood Forum since Feb. 1, could win their first title in nine final series meetings against Boston if they take the fourth and fifth games here Wednesday and Friday nights.

The Celtics, seeking to become the first team to repeat as NBA champions since Boston's 1969 team, would host the sixth and seventh games if necessary.

The Celtics led by 10 points midway in the second quarter before Worthy, a 6-foot-9 forward with the strength to score inside, the quickness to avoid defenders and the speed to finish LA's lightning fast break, took over.

He scored 10 of his 15 second-quarter points as the Lakers outscored Boston 27-11 in the final seven minutes of the first half for a 65-59 halftime lead. Worthy, who made 12 of 18 field-goal attempts in the middle two periods, scored 14 more points as the Lakers turned the game into a rout.

Boston never got closer than six points in the second half as the Lakers pulled away to lead by as many as 18 in the third period.

Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, who had 30 points, 17 rebounds and eight assists in Game 2 after being held to 12 points, three rebounds and one assist in the opener, had 26 points and 14 rebounds Sunday. His 20 points at the 9:06 mark of the third quarter gave him 4,458 career playoff points, one more than Jerry West's previous record.

Earvin "Magic" Johnson had 17 points and 16 assists for the Lakers.

Kevin McHale led Boston with 31 points, Larry Bird added 20 and Robert Parish had 17 for the Celtics.
