

In brief

Political forum planned

The First Annual University Great Pumpkin Letter Writing Festival will be held Sunday from 3 to 7 p.m. in the EMU Forum Room.

The event, sponsored by the Survival Center, is designed to promote the importance of public awareness on political issues. All materials for a complete letter, including postage, are provided.

Interested community members are encouraged to drop by with any issue in mind, but representatives from various student groups, such as the Oregon Student Public Interest Research Group and the War Resistance and Draft Information Center, will have specific information available, including key topics and lists of possible contacts.

Benefit concert set

A concert to benefit the Teamsters Local 670 Union will be held Saturday from 7 to 11 p.m. at 1236 Kincaid St.

Performing at the concert are bands including Sandunga, a Latin band; Eagle Park Slim, a blues band; and Crandell & Bartels, playing the acoustic guitar. In addition to music and dancing, skits, refreshments, door prizes and speeches are planned.

The concert is $5, and funds will go to pay for mailing executive board election information to Local 670 members. Sponsored by Local 670 Teamsters for a Change.

Unique gift sale

The University Museum of Natural History is holding a sale of unique gifts Saturday and Sunday from noon to 5 p.m. each day at the museum.

Items on sale include rugs, bags and animal trappings from the Middle East, with prices from $5 to $5,000; hand-decorated eggs, $4 to $25; nature calendars featuring Oregon scenes for $5; and hand-made rice paper masks, $9 to $35.

Also at the sale will be Italian woven place mats and napkins, Venetian beads and masks, woodcarvings, candles and enamel jewelry, priced from $5 to $75.

Et al.

MEETINGS

HU-MEN weekly meeting tonight at 7:30. Call 342-7639 for more information.

LECTURES

Renters' rights is the topic of a lecture today by Richard Guske of the Community Housing Resource Board. Lecture is at 4:30 p.m. in the EMU International Lounge. Everyone welcome. Sponsored by the Foreign Student Organization and the ASUO.

Azra Khalidi, a student from Pakistan, will present a slide show on Pakistan today at 4 p.m. in the EMU International Lounge. Sponsored by the Foreign Student Organization.

MISCELLANEOUS

Women in Transition will be having a potluck tonight at 7 at the Koinonia Center, 14th Avenue and Kincaid Street. For more information, call 686-4099.

On-campus internships offer great opportunities to gain job-related skills and experience for credit. Stop by the On-Campus Internship Program office in Room 364 Oregon Hall (x3216) to set up an internship for winter term.

The Lifestyle Planning Program is now accepting applications for Peer Health Advisor positions for winter term, 1986. For more information, call 686-4456 or 686-4441.

1986-87 Financial Aid Forms are now available in the Office of Student Financial Aid, Room 260 Oregon Hall. All application materials must be received by March 3, 1986, for priority consideration. For more information, call 686-3221.

The applications for the General University Scholarship Program are now available in the Office of Student Financial Aid, Room 260 Oregon Hall. All applications must be received by Feb. 14, 1986.

INTERVIEWS

Campus interviews will be held this week by the following recruiters:

For interviews with no meeting time, call 686-3235.

Today: First Investors Corp. (sales management trainee); Wicks, Hatfield and Co. (entry-level staff accountant).

Dec. 23: Victor Elementary

School District (education for grades K-6); Victor Valley Union High School District (education for grades 7-12).

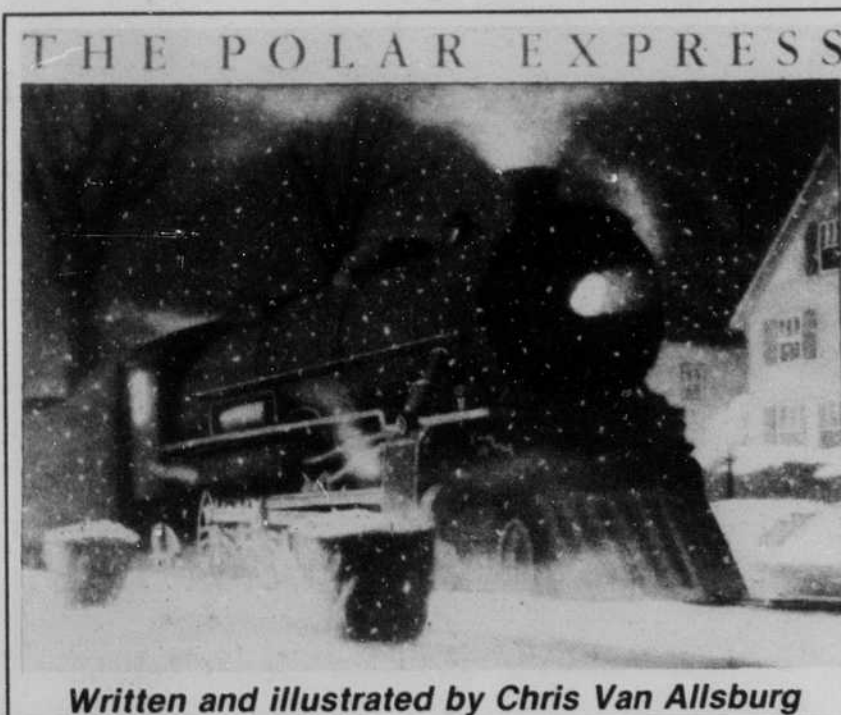

IT'S COMING....

HALLEY'S COMET YOGURT SHOP!

UO Bookstore

The Polar Express

A remarkable Christmas story for every collector of art and fantasy

Written and illustrated by Chris Van Allsburg

In strange and moving earth-shades of full color art, Chris Van Allsburg paints another worldly classic of the Christmas season that more than rivals his previous imaginative books, The Garden of Abdul Gasazi, Jumanji and The Wreck of the Zepher.

Van Allsburg's newest story revolves around a boy and a mysterious train that waits for him late one night after the town has gone to sleep. He boards the train — The Polar Express — and begins an adventure that takes him to the North Pole and Santa's workshop, and back to his own home on Christmas morning.

$15⁹⁵ Now In the General Book Department

Your Store Since 1920

UO BOOKSTORE
13th & Kincaid
M-F 7:30-5:30
SAT 10:00-3:00
Supplies 686-4331

THESIS SPECIALISTS

You've done your best on your thesis. Now relax while we do ours. Kinko's will copy your dissertation quickly, affordably and very carefully for a thesis that you can submit with pride and confidence.

kinko's®

OPEN EARLY • OPEN LATE
OPEN WEEKENDS

860 E. 13th

344-7894