
WHAT'S AHEAD IN THE AMERICAN EXPRESS REAL LIFE PLANNER™

You've got a good job, you're making good professional contacts and working your way up the professional ladder, your financial house is now in order — you're ready to start looking around for investment opportunities appropriate to your new lifestyle. In March, we'll explore investment opportunities to fit all budgets, with money making ventures and suggestions for those with as little as $100 (or as much as $10,000) to invest.

In our April installment, The Real Life Planner takes a look at the world of continuing education, and we'll help you decide whether you need to go back to school in order to get what you want out of your career.

Stay with us through the next two issues of Newsweek On Campus; they'll help you deal with the most important issues of your life.

RECOMMENDED READING

Your Money And Your Life, by Robert Z. Aliber (Basic Books, Inc.)

The Dow Jones-Irwin Guide To Personal Financial Planning, by Frederick Amling and William G. Dromis (Dow Jones-Irwin)

How To Become Financially Independent Before You're 35, by Jeffrey A. Stern (Little, Brown)

Financial Savvy For Singles, by Nancy Dunham (Rawson Associates)

The L.T.R. Money Book: The Personal Finance Guide For Every Kind Of Living Together Relationship: by Linda Burr Harden and Gerald Harden (Everest House)

Your Personal Financial Fitness Program, by Elizabeth S. Lewin (Facts on File)

Sylvia Porter's Your Own Money, by Sylvia Porter (Avon)

Your Financial Plan: A Consumer's Guide, by Carol E. Scott (Harper and Row)

AMERICAN EXPRESS

TRAVEL RELATED SERVICES

An American Express company