

A 'byte'
of art
See Page 2B

THE Friday EDITION

Friday, February 21, 1986

Arts and Entertainment

Oregon Daily Emerald

Recording the sounds of Oregon

See Page 4B

The local 16-track Gung Ho Studios, boasting 'top-of-the-line' equipment, remains near the forefront of the Northwest's recording industry, a large and healthy (though struggling) portion of which can be found in the Eugene-

Springfield area. Although the equipment is available, it won't be for long without community support.