Jazz flutist to play tonight

Contemporary flutist Larkin, "a master, and wizard with sounds," will make his first appearance in Eugene tonight at 8:30 at the WOW Hall.

To date, Larkin has released three albums — "To The Essence Of A Candle" (1977), "O'cean" (1981) and "Moments Empowered" (1984). He has been a flute musician since he was 18, and has been praised for his unique improvisational style and technical brilliance.

both in this country and in Europe.

Tickets to Larkin's performance are $7 in advance, $8 the day of the show. Advance tickets are available at the EMU Main Desk and at the WOW Hall, West Eighth Avenue and Lincoln Street. All ages are welcome and beer and wine are available to those over 21 with identification. The WOW Hall is wheelchair accessible.

For more information call 687-2746.

Hult plans seminar, dance performance

The Hult Center will be the venue for a weekend of Slavic culture beginning tonight, when Yugoslavia's new and spectacular folk-dance company Frulica performs on the Silva Concert Hall stage at 7:30.

The Belgrade-based troupe began its second North American tour in Texas earlier this month. Frulica is made up of 24 dancers, singers and musicians, and is a smaller version of Frula, a parent company which frequently tours the world.

Performance promoter Spectrum Attractions has arranged for Frulica to conduct a Slavic-dance workshop Saturday at 10 a.m. on the Silva stage.

Tickets for Frulica's performance cost $5, $9 and $12.50, with discounts available for senior citizens and students. Workshop tickets cost $8.
