Fencing club competes in tourney

The Oregon Club Sports fencing team took 11 people to compete in a tournament sponsored by the Eugene Fencing Club on Saturday at

Roosevelt Middle School. The tournament, which had open and beginner's competition, was divided into three divisions: men's foil-electric, women's foil-electric and beginner's.

Oregon freshman Jeff Hill finished second, out of a field of about 26, in men's foil-electric while Kathel Kelton finished third in the women's foil-electric.

In the beginner's division, Logan Dhono captured first, Tracy Stubblefield took second and Owen Mikasa finished in third.
